- (a) were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; and
- (b) are presented on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Standard of financial statement and auditor's report. 11. The financial statement referred to in section 124 of the Act and the auditor's report referred to in section 137 of the said Act must, except as otherwise provided by these Regulations, be prepared in accordance with standards approved by generally accepted international auditing standards.

Election of directors and committee members. 12. (1) This Regulation applies for the purposes of sections 50, 56 and 62 of the Act.

(2) Before accepting the nomination of a person, the Chairman of the meeting called to elect directors and committee members shall satisfy himself that the persons to be nominated —

- (a) are qualified pursuant to the Act and By-Laws of the society;
- (b) have consented to the nomination; and have not been declared ineligible by the Registrar.

(3) Where the number of candidates nominated do not exceed the number of directors or committee members to be elected, the chairman of the meeting called to elect directors and committee members shall declare all the candidates elected.

(4) Subject to paragraph (7), only one ballot is to be taken and the number of candidates equal to the number of directors, or committee members to be elected receiving the highest number of votes are to be declared elected.

(5) Where candidates are to be elected for varying terms, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes cast are to be declared elected for the longest or the longer terms, as the case may be.

(6) For the purpose of these Regulations a term for an elected director, supervisory committee or credit committee member shall not exceed three years.

(7) Where two or more candidates receive an equal number of votes, the members present at the meeting may, by resolution, provide that a second ballot be cast to break the tie.

(8) Where the meeting does not decide to hold a second ballot pursuant to paragraph (7), the chairman of the meeting called to elect directors and committee members shall draw lots, and the candidate whose lot is drawn is to be declared elected.

(9) Where a member votes for more than the number of directors or committee members to be elected on his ballot, his ballot is not to be counted.

(10) Where a registered society submits a By-Law to the Registrar that provides for a method of electing directors or committee members other than at a general meeting of members and the Registrar is satisfied that the By-Law does not contravene paragraphs (4), (5), (6), (7), (8) and (9), the Registrar may approve the By-Law and on and after the date of that approval, the directors or committee members of the society shall be elected in the manner provided in the By-Law.

(11) No society shall include in any By-Law governing the manner of electing its directors and committee members any provision that prohibits its members from nominating as a candidate for election as director and committee member any person who —

(a) is qualified to be a director and committee member; and

(b) consents to the nomination;

provided any such candidate has not been declared ineligible by the Registrar.

(12) (1) For the purposes of these Regulations a person may be declared ineligible by the Registrar —

- (a) where misconduct is imputed on the part of such a person;
- (b) where such person being a Board or Committee Member, has violated his fiduciary trust; or
- (b) where such person is a delinquent borrower.

(2) An aggrieved person may appeal to the Co-operatives Societies Appeals Tribunals within twenty-one days on a decision of the Registrar under sub-paragraph (1) and the Registrar's decision shall stand until a determination by the Co-operatives Societies Appeals Tribunal.

  - (g) ensure that the society complies with the provisions of the Act, Regulations and By-Laws; and
  - (h) verify the assets of the Society and monitor whether the assets are properly protected.

17. (1) Where a person appeals the termination of his membership to the Registrar pursuant to section 31 of the Act, the person shall submit a written statement of membership to the Registrar within thirty days of the date of —

Procedures on appeal of termination of membership.

- (a) the members' resolution terminating the person's membership pursuant to section 29 of the Act; or
- (b) the members' confirmation of the directors' order terminating the person's membership pursuant to 28 (2) of the Act.

(2) A person appealing the termination of his membership shall state in his written statement required pursuant to paragraph (1) —

- (a) any reasons for the termination of his membership of which he has personal knowledge;
- (b) the grounds on which his appeal lies; and

(c) any relevant facts or information, in addition to those described in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b), that the Registrar may require.

(3) The Registrar shall hear an appeal pursuant to section 31 of the Act within thirty days after the date that he receives a completed written statement pursuant to paragraph (1) and inform the appellant, in writing, within fourteen days after hearing the appeal of the outcome thereof.

Special reserve fund.

18. Where the amount held to the credit of a member whose membership has been terminated —

- (a) is less than fifty dollars ($50), the Society may add that amount to its income from operations; or
- (b) is fifty dollars ($50) or more, the Society shall place that amount in a special reserve fund.

Amendment of By-Laws.

19. (1) Where in pursuance of the provisions of sections 10 and 48 of the Act a registered society amends its By-Laws, such amendment shall be made by a resolution of members of the registered society at a general meeting.

(2) Every resolution under paragraph (1) of this Regulation shall not be valid and effective unless it was taken by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members present at the general meeting at which the resolution was proposed.

(3) A copy of a resolution under paragraph (1) of this Regulation shall be forwarded to the Registrar together with three copies of the amendment.

By-Laws of housing society.

20. For the purposes of section 204, a housing society must provide in its By-Laws that —

- (a) the Society shall give a copy of the By-Laws and the occupancy agreement to every member;
- (b) each member is entitled to have quiet enjoyment of his housing unit;
- (c) either the Society or the member is responsible for
  - (i) the maintenance of the housing unit in a safe, habitable and reasonable state of repair;

- (ii) the repair or replacement of fixtures; and
  - (iii) any damage to the housing unit.
- (d) the society and its agents, except in the case of an emergency, are required to give reasonable notice to the member prior to entry of the member's unit;
- (e) the society shall give three months notice of any increase in housing charges except where —
- (i) the Registrar gives his approval for a shorter notice; or
  - (ii) the members have unanimously approved the increase at a general meeting.
- (f) the society shall give a minimum of thirty days notice to a member of the termination of his membership, except where a member contravenes any By-Laws governing —
- (i) ordinary cleanliness of the housing unit after having received written notice of the contravention;
  - (ii) the use of the premises for prohibited purposes; or
  - (iii) payment of housing charges; and
- (g) there is to be no acceleration of housing charges.

21. (1) For the purposes of this Regulation —

Liquidity.

- (a) "liabilities" include any deposits of money made in the Credit Union, any accrued interest on those deposits and any loans taken out by the Credit Union;
- (b) "line of credit" means the maximum amount which a Credit Union is entitled to borrow at any given time;
- (c) "liquid assets" include East Caribbean currency and deposits of Eastern Caribbean currency made by a Credit Union with a bank or any other institution that takes deposits, and that the Credit Union is entitled to withdraw on demand as readily marketable securities;

- (d) "marketable securities" include treasury bills, government debentures, treasury notes and other securities listed on the Eastern Caribbean securities exchange;
- (e) "secondary society" means a registered society which comprises mainly primary societies; and
- (f) "tertiary society" means a registered society all of whose members are secondary societies.

(2) A Credit Union shall at all times:—

- (a) have in its possession liquid assets; and/or
- (b) maintain a line of credit, in an amount sufficient to enable the Society to meet its normal cash flow requirements as estimated by the Society.

(3) A Credit Union shall at all times maintain an account:—

- (a) with a bank;
- (b) with a loan company or trust company incorporated under the Companies Act; or
- (c) with a secondary society or a tertiary society whose By-Laws provide for the acceptance of deposits, if the deposits can be repaid on demand.

(4) The account mentioned in paragraph (3) shall be —

- (a) in an amount that is not less than ten percent (10%) of the total liabilities of the registered society as shown on the Society's most recent financial statement prepared and submitted in accordance with Regulation 10; and
- (b) in the form of demand deposits or deposits redeemable on the notice of the Society.

(5) A Credit Union shall maintain the account described in paragraph (3) separate and apart from any other accounts or funds.

(6) Notwithstanding paragraph (4) (b) and subject to paragraph (7), where a Credit Union —

- (a) was registered under the former Act, as that Act, existed on the day before the coming into force of these Regulations; and
- (b) maintained, on the commencement of the Act, a reserve, the monies maintained, on the commencement of the Act, in the reserve mentioned in paragraph (b) may be used to satisfy requirements of paragraph (4) (a).

(7) Where —

- (a) a Credit Union described in paragraph (6) does not otherwise have sufficient monies on account to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (4) (a); and
- (b) any part of the reserve mentioned in paragraph (6) consists of unencumbered securities of the Government of Antigua and Barbuda;

those securities shall mature within five years of the coming into force of these Regulations in order to be eligible to be used to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (4) (a).

(8) Where securities will mature after five years of the coming into force of these Regulations, the Credit Union shall, as soon as practicable after the coming into force of these Regulations, sell those securities and use the proceeds of the disposition to purchase deposits in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (3).

(9) Within six months of the coming into force of these Regulations, a Credit Union shall maintain not less than fifty percent of the amount required by paragraph (4) (a) in liquid assets.

(10) Subject to section 119(3) of the Act, where a Credit Union does not have in its possession liquid assets, does not maintain a line of credit or does not do both of those things in an amount sufficient to enable the Credit Union to meet its normal cash flow requirements as required by paragraph (2), the Credit Union may use the amount in its account required to be maintained by paragraphs (3) and (4) to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (2).

Loan approval. 22. (1) An application for a loan must be made on a form provided by the society and must state —

- (a) the purpose for which the loan is required;
- (b) the security, if any, offered; and
- (c) any other information the Credit Committee or Loans Officer requires.

(2) When a loan application is approved, the Credit Committee or Loans Officer approving the loan shall approve the application in writing and ensure that the application and approval specify with respect to the loan —

- (a) the amount approved;
- (b) the terms of payment;
- (c) the rate of interest;
- (d) any security to be held by the Credit Union;
- (e) any guarantees to be taken;
- (f) any conditions that may be specified by the credit committee or the person approving the loan in addition to those mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) to (e); and
- (g) the date of the approval.

(3) A loan granted by a Credit Union shall be evidenced by a signed loan agreement between the Credit Union and the applicant.

(4) No member of a Credit Committee or of the Board or Supervisory Committee or any other person who has been authorised to approve loans shall be present at the discussion of the approval of or approve a loan to himself or any person with whom he has a fiduciary relationship.

23. (1) No officer, Director, Credit Committee member, Supervisory Committee member, or employee of a society may borrow from the society an amount in excess of his holdings therein in shares, deposits and accumulated earnings unless approved by the vote of two-thirds of the other members of the Board, Credit Committee and Supervisory Committee sitting together. Minutes of the Joint Committee meeting must be available for inspection at all times.

Borrowing by director etc.

(2) The Supervisory Committee meeting shall be responsible for the compilation of the Minutes referred to in this subsection.

(3) A meeting referred to in paragraph (1) is not properly constituted unless a quorum of the members of the Credit Committee is present.

(4) No registered society shall lend to any single member or interconnected group an amount exceeding —

- (a) ten percent (10%) of the aggregate of the registered society's share capital, retained earnings and reserves;
- (b) the aggregate of the members' ordinary deposits and the society's reserves; or
- (c) such lesser percentage as is specified in the By-Laws.

24. The Board of Directors, shall by resolution establish a policy with respect to —

Security for loans.

- (a) the collateral security or guarantors required for approved loans; and
- (b) the manner in which the fair market value of any real property obtained as a security for a loan is to be calculated.

25. For the purposes of section 199 (1) of the Act interest on loans may be paid at intervals not exceeding one month.

Maximum period for interest on loans.

26. The terms and conditions upon which each loan shall be granted and repaid shall include the following —

Loan terms and conditions.

(1) Every application for a loan shall be accompanied by such information about the financial position and income of the borrower as the Credit Committee or Loans Officer may require.

(2) No society shall make a loan to an unincorporated organisation. Where such a loan is contemplated, it shall be made to one or more of the members or officers of the organisation provided, however, that the Society shall, in any such particular case, require such additional security by way of endorsement of the promissory note as may be deemed desirable.

(3) No loan shall be made to a member if it would cause the total indebtedness of the member of the Credit Union to exceed ten percent (10%) of the paid-up capital and deposits of the Credit Union.

(4) The total of all loans made to associations, organisations or corporations shall not, at any time, exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the total shares and deposits of the Credit Union.

(5) No loan shall be made to a company unless such loan is personally guaranteed by shareholders of the company holding a majority of the shares in value and in voting rights provided that such personal guarantee shall not be required where the loan is guaranteed by an organisation or agency of government approved by the Stabilisation Fund Board.

(6) No loan shall be made by a society to a corporation if a majority of the shares of the corporation are held by the officers and directors of the Credit Union unless the application has been approved by the Registrar in consultation with the League Board.

(7) All transactions in the loan account of a member shall be shown by the necessary entries in a passbook or statement to be delivered to each member.

(8) Where a mortgage on land or buildings is taken as security for a loan, the amount loaned shall not exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the market value of the land or buildings.

(9) Before such a loan is made, the Credit Committee or loans officer shall require that an appraisal of the market value of the property be made by an appraiser whom they believe to be competent and who is instructed and employed independently of any owner of the property on a form prescribed by the League and approved by the Registrar.

(10) The expenses, if any, of any appraiser employed pursuant to paragraph (9) shall be borne by the applicant for the loan.

27. (1) When the whole or part of a loan made by a Credit Union remains unpaid for a period of twelve months after the date fixed for repayment in full of the monies loaned and no payment on account of principal has been made after the date, the amount of the principal remaining unpaid, subject to the approval of the Board, shall be charged to and paid from the statutory reserve fund less any money standing to the credit of the borrower on the books of the Credit Union in a share or deposit account and less the market value of any security held by the Credit Union in respect of the loan. The Board may, with the Registrar's approval, reduce the period of twelve months. Bad debts.

(2) Any monies subsequently recovered with respect to such loans shall be paid into the reserve fund.

(3) All interest which has been collected thereon during the current year shall be deducted from the loan before the write off is made.

(4) With the approval of the Board, any collection fees or commissions, or legal charges incurred in the collection of the loan which are not reversible from the debtor may be added to the loan before the write off is made.

28. (1) When a Credit Union identifies a loan as a doubtful or uncollectible loan, the Credit Union shall immediately allow for the doubtful loan by — Allowance for bad or doubtful debts.

(a) establishing on its books and accounts an allowance for the doubtful loan in an amount equal to the difference between —

(i) the book value of the loan, including any interest due and unpaid and interest accrued; and

(ii) the realisable book value of the loan as estimated by the Credit Union;

(b) reporting on any income statement it prepares, including its annual income statement required pursuant to Regulation 10, as a loss from income an amount as an allowance for doubtful loans equal to the sum of allowances for all doubtful loans established in accordance with paragraph (a); and

(c) reporting on any balance sheet it prepares, including its annual balance sheet —

(i) the value, as an asset, of its doubtful loans in an amount equal to the value of all of the doubtful loans as stated on its books and accounts less the allowance for the doubtful loan established in accordance with sub-paragraph (a); and

(ii) any property or other assets acquired in the financial year pursuant to a foreclosure realisation;

(iii) proceedings on a loan that was a doubtful loan at an amount not greater than the realisable value of the loan —

(A) as estimated by the Credit Union pursuant to paragraph (a) (ii); and

(B) as stated on the books and accounts of the Credit Union before the property or assets were realised pursuant to the foreclosure or other proceedings.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a former Act society in respect of the financial year prior to the society's continuance may, instead of charging its allowance for doubtful loans to its income in the manner required by paragraph (1) (b), charge the amount of the allowance as calculated pursuant to paragraph (1) (a) to the reserve required by the Act.

(3) A Credit Union shall report, at the end of the financial year, to the Registrar

(a) the number and amount of doubtful loans for which an allowance has been made in accordance with this Regulation in that financial year;

(b) the amount of allowance for doubtful loans made pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) in that financial year; and

- (c) the value of property and other assets recovered in that financial year on doubtful loans.

(4) The Board of directors of a Credit Union shall cause a list of all doubtful loans to be available at the registered office of the Credit Union for any examination required by the Credit Committee, Supervisory Committee and the Auditor of the Credit Union; and the Board shall send a copy of that list to the Registrar.

(5) The list mentioned in paragraph (3) includes, with respect to each doubtful loan —

- (a) the name of the borrower;
- (b) the amount of the loan; and
- (c) the amount of any allowance made pursuant to this Regulation.

(6) Where a Credit Union determines that the allowance for doubtful loans required by paragraph (1) will result in a net loss on its income statement for the financial year, it shall immediately notify the Registrar in writing of that fact.

29. (1) The loss exposure on outstanding loans at the end of the fiscal year, shall be calculated in accordance with the following schedule Overdue loans.

Duration of Period Of Overdue Loans	Percentage of Outstanding Loans Balance that is deemed Loss Exposure
1 — 30 days	0 percent
31 — 59 days	5 percent
60 — 89 days	20 percent
90 — 179 days	40 percent
180 — 269 days	65 percent
270 — 365 days	75 percent
over 365 days	100 percent

(2) For the purpose of these Regulations “overdue loans” means personal, mortgage or other types of loans on which the member is in default for more than 180 days on a payment or payments of principal or interest according to any agreement with the Credit Union.

Investment. 30. Monies not required for current purposes of the Credit Union may be deposited or invested in accordance with section 114 (1) of the Act. Section 114 (1) (d) shall include shares and debentures in a suitably established Stabilisation Fund.

Use of statutory reserve. 31. (1) Subject to the approval of the Registrar, a society may use its statutory reserves for the following purposes —

(a) to make good deficiencies created by its operations; and

(b) to recoup losses on its investments.

(2) When the Registrar receives a request for approval pursuant to paragraph (1) he may —

(a) exempt the Society from compliance with Regulation 28 (1) (a) for any period of time that he considers appropriate;

(b) restrict the purposes for which the Society may use its statutory reserves; or

(c) do all or a combination of the things mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b).

Policies and procedures for loans. 32. (1) For the purposes of section 57 of the Act and subject to these Regulations and the By-Laws, the Credit Committee of a Credit Union shall —

(a) recommend to the Board policies and procedures to be followed by the Credit Union for approving and granting loans made by the Credit Union;

(b) monitor, through reports from the Credit Union's auditor and other officers of the Credit Union, loans procedures used by the Credit Union;

(c) review all applications for loans, loan extensions and revisions of the terms of loans that are referred to it by the Board or an officer of the Credit Union; and

(d) review reports of officers of the Credit Union that are

(2) The Credit Committee shall keep a record of, with respect to each application for a loan or a renewal or extension of a loan considered by it -

- (a) the name of the applicant;
- (b) the amount of the loan applied for or the change in the terms or conditions applied for; and
- (c) whether the application was approved, declined or deferred.

(3) Where, in the opinion of the Registrar, the policies of the Credit Union are not sufficient to protect the deposits of the Credit Union's members, the Registrar may, in writing, direct the Credit Union to take measures to protect those deposits.

(4) Where —

- (a) the Registrar has sent a written directive pursuant to paragraph (3); and
- (b) the Credit Union fails to take measures that protect the deposits of the Credit Union's members, or the measures taken are, in the opinion of the Registrar, insufficient; or
- (c) the Registrar is of the opinion that the Credit Union has not sufficiently protected the deposits of its members;

the Registrar may direct the Credit Union to adopt and follow any policies that the Registrar may impose and the Credit Union shall adopt and follow those policies and the Board of Directors of the Credit Union shall ensure that the Credit Union does adopt and follow those policies. These policies shall include the Prudential and Minimum Operational Standards.

33. (1) For the purposes of section 199 (2) of the Act, no interest payments are to be included in the Credit Union's income where the interest payment is with respect to a doubtful loan for which an allowance has been made pursuant to Regulation 28. Interest on loans.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), a Credit Union may include in its income a maximum of twelve months accrued interest with re-

(3) The Registrar may allow a Credit Union to include in its income accrued interest on loans where the interest has accrued for a period longer than twelve months.

Deposits.

34. (1) Subject to this regulation the terms and conditions for the receipt of deposits by a registered society shall be set out in the By-Laws of the Society.

(2) No Credit Union shall establish and operate, without the approval of the Registrar, deposit accounts that permit funds in the account to be withdrawn or transferred by the depositor by means of —

- (a) a cheque;
- (b) another bill of exchange; or
- (c) any other negotiable instrument, that allows the holder of the negotiable instrument to have payment on demand made to him from funds in the deposit.

(3) No Credit Union shall, without the approval of the Registrar, accept funds on deposits for a term that is stipulated in any agreement between the Credit Union and the depositor to be longer than five years.

(4) Where a Credit Union accepts deposits for a term that is stipulated in an agreement between the Credit Union and the depositor, the Credit Union shall provide a receipt to the depositor showing —

- (a) the terms and conditions pursuant to which the funds are deposited by the depositor and accepted by the Credit Union;
- (b) the date on which the deposit matures;
- (c) the rate of interest to be paid by the Credit Union on funds deposited;
- (d) the time when interest is to be paid by the Credit Union; and
- (e) any conditions that the Board has stipulated for withdrawal of funds by the depositor prior to the date the deposit matures

(5) Where a person has deposited funds in an account with the Credit Union, the person is entitled to receive and the Credit Union shall provide a statement showing the transactions conducted by the person involving the person's account, the balance of funds in the account and any other information that the Credit Union considers important.

(6) The Board may, in consultation with the Registrar, determine the form in which the statements required pursuant to paragraph (4) are given.

35. (1) In pursuance of section 117 of the Act every registered society shall from time to time fix, at a General Meeting, the maximum liability the society may incur in loans or deposits from a member or non-member.

Maximum liability on deposits and loans.

(2) The maximum liability fixed by paragraph (1) is subject to the approval of the Registrar.

(3) No registered society shall exceed the maximum liability approved by the Registrar pursuant to paragraph (2).

(4) The Registrar may, at any time, review the maximum liability approved pursuant to paragraph (2) and vary that maximum.

(5) No Society shall accept shares or ordinary deposits of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in any one (1) transaction from a member or non-member without an accepted declaration of the source of Funds.

36. (1) The Directors of a registered society may open and maintain an account at any bank.

Bank accounts.

(2) Cheques drawn on an account mentioned in paragraph (1) may be signed by the Treasurer of the Society and a Director.

(3) Without affecting paragraph (2) the Board may authorise the manager or another senior employee to perform any of the duties of the Treasurer, including the signing of cheques.

37. (1) In this Regulation, "branch" means any office of a Credit Union where the Credit Union proposes to carry on business, including accepting deposits and operating a chequing service, separate and apart from its Head Office.

Branches.

(2) Credit Unions may open a branch for servicing their members, having first obtained the Registrar's approval in writing.

Commencement. 38. These Regulations come into force on the 2nd day of January, 2000.
