Section 14

(4) The Regulator or a WELS inspector cannot perform a duty or function, or exercise a power, under a corresponding State-Territory law unless the conferral of the function or power, or the imposition of the duty, is in accordance with an agreement between the Commonwealth and the State or Territory concerned.

14 How duty is imposed by corresponding State-Territory laws

Application

(1) This section applies if a corresponding State-Territory law purports to impose a duty on the Regulator or WELS inspectors.

Note: Section 15 sets out when such a law imposes a duty on the Regulator or WELS inspectors.

(b) imposing the duty by the law of the State or Territory is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Regulator or WELS inspectors.

Note: If this subsection applies, the duty will be taken to be imposed by force of the law of the State or Territory (the Commonwealth having consented under section 13 to the imposition of the duty by that law).

Commonwealth legislative power sufficient to support duty but State or Territory legislative powers are not

(3) If, to ensure the validity of the purported imposition of the duty, it is necessary that the duty be imposed by a law of the Commonwealth (rather than by the law of the State or Territory), the duty is taken to be imposed by this Act to the extent necessary to ensure that validity.
(4) If, because of subsection (3), this Act is taken to impose the duty, it is the intention of the Parliament to rely on all powers available to it under the Constitution to support the imposition of the duty by this Act.

(5) The duty is taken to be imposed by this Act in accordance with subsection (3) only to the extent to which imposing the duty:
   (a) is within the legislative powers of the Commonwealth; and
   (b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Regulator or WELS inspectors.

(6) Subsections (1) to (5) do not limit section 13.

15 When a corresponding State-Territory law imposes a duty

For the purposes of sections 13 and 14, a corresponding State-Territory law imposes a duty on the Regulator or WELS inspectors if:
   (a) the law confers a function or power on the Regulator or WELS inspectors; and
   (b) the circumstances in which the function or power is conferred give rise to an obligation on the Regulator or WELS inspectors to perform the function or to exercise the power.

16 No doubling-up of liabilities

(1) If:
   (a) an act or omission is an offence against this Act and is also an offence against a law of a State or Territory; and
   (b) the offender has been punished for the offence under the law of the State or Territory;
the offender is not liable to be punished for the offence under this Act.

(1) Application may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of a reviewable State-Territory decision.

(2) A decision made by the Regulator in the performance of a function or the exercise of a power conferred by a corresponding State-Territory law is a reviewable State-Territory decision for the purposes of this section if:
   (a) the law under which the decision was made provides for review by the Administrative Appeals Tribunal; and
   (b) the decision is declared by the regulations to be a reviewable State-Territory decision for the purposes of this section.

44C Conduct contravening more than one civil penalty provision

(1) If conduct constitutes a contravention of 2 or more civil penalty provisions, proceedings may be instituted under this Part against a person in relation to the contravention of any one or more of those provisions.

(2) However, the person is not liable to more than one pecuniary penalty under this Part in relation to the same conduct.

44D Multiple contraventions

A contravention of a civil penalty provision is not an offence.
Division 2—Civil proceedings and criminal proceedings

   (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is the same, or substantially the same, as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.

(2) The proceedings for the order (the civil proceedings) may be resumed if the person is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise:
   (a) the civil proceedings are dismissed; and
   (b) costs must not be awarded in relation to the civil proceedings.

44K Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings

Criminal proceedings may be commenced against a person for conduct that is the same, or substantially the same, as conduct that would constitute a contravention of a civil penalty provision regardless of whether a civil penalty order has been made against the person in relation to the contravention.

Division 2  Civil proceedings and criminal proceedings

Section 44L

44L. Evidence given in civil proceedings not admissible in criminal proceedings

(b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is the same, or substantially the same, as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.

(2) However, subsection (1) does not apply to criminal proceedings in relation to the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the civil penalty order.
Division 3—Miscellaneous

44M Ancillary contravention of civil penalty provisions

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) in relation to a civil penalty provision is taken to have contravened the provision.

44N Continuing contraventions of civil penalty provisions

44P  Mistake of fact

(1) A person is not liable to have a civil penalty order made against the person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if:
(a) at or before the time of the conduct constituting the contravention, the person:
   (i) considered whether or not facts existed; and
   (ii) was under a mistaken but reasonable belief about those facts; and
(b) had those facts existed, the conduct would not have constituted a contravention of the civil penalty provision.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person may be regarded as having considered whether or not facts existed if:
(a) the person had considered, on a previous occasion, whether those facts existed in the circumstances surrounding that occasion; and
(b) the person honestly and reasonably believed that the circumstances surrounding the present occasion were the same, or substantially the same, as those surrounding the

   (a) authorise the WELS inspector to enter the premises using such assistance and such force to enter the premises as is necessary and reasonable; and
   (b) state whether the entry is authorised to be made at any time of the day or night or during specified hours of the day or night; and
   (c) specify the day (not more than one week after the issue of the warrant) on which the warrant ceases to have effect; and 59 Warrants by telephone, fax etc.

Application for warrant

(1) If, in an urgent case, a WELS inspector considers it necessary to do so, the WELS inspector may apply to a magistrate by telephone, fax or other electronic means for a warrant under section 58.

(2) The magistrate may:
   (a) require communication by voice to the extent that it is practicable in the circumstances; and
   (b) make a recording of the whole or any part of any such communication by voice.

(3) Before applying for the warrant, the WELS inspector must prepare an information of the kind mentioned in subsection 58(2) that sets out the grounds on which the warrant is sought.

(4) If it is necessary to do so, the WELS inspector may apply for the warrant before the information is sworn or affirmed.

Issue of warrant

(5) If the magistrate is satisfied:
   (a) after having considered the terms of the information; and
   (b) after having received such further information (if any) as the magistrate requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought;
   that there are reasonable grounds for issuing the warrant, the magistrate may complete and sign the same warrant that the magistrate would issue under section 58 if the application had been made under that section.

Obligations of magistrate and inspector once warrant issued

(6) If the magistrate completes and signs the warrant:
   (a) the magistrate must:
   (d) state the purpose for which the warrant is issued.
(i) tell the WELS inspector what the terms of the warrant are; and
(ii) tell the WELS inspector the day on which and the time at which the warrant was signed; and
(iii) tell the WELS inspector the day (not more than one week after the magistrate completes and signs the warrant) on which the warrant ceases to have effect; and
(iv) record on the warrant the reasons for issuing the warrant; and
(b) the WELS inspector must:
   (i) complete a form of warrant in the same terms as the warrant completed and signed by the magistrate; and
   (ii) write on the form the name of the magistrate and the day on which and the time at which the warrant was signed.

(7) The WELS inspector must also, not later than the day after the day of expiry or execution of the warrant, whichever is the earlier, send to the magistrate:
   (a) the form of warrant completed by the WELS inspector; and
   (b) the information referred to in subsection (3), which must have been duly sworn or affirmed.

(8) When the magistrate receives those documents, the magistrate must:
   (a) attach them to the warrant that the magistrate completed and signed; and
   (b) deal with them in the way in which the magistrate would have dealt with the information if the application had been made under section 58.

Authority of warrant

(9) A form of warrant duly completed under subsection (6) is authority for the same powers as are authorised by the warrant signed by the magistrate.

(10) If:
(a) it is material, in any proceedings, for a court to be satisfied that an exercise of a power was authorised by this section; and
(b) the warrant signed by the magistrate authorising the exercise of the power is not produced in evidence;
the court must assume, unless the contrary is proved, that the exercise of the power was not authorised by such a warrant.

(2) A failure to comply with the requirements of subsection (1) in relation to a decision does not affect the validity of the decision.

71 Internal review

(1) This section applies if:
   (a) as a result of electronic equipment being operated as mentioned in section 49:
      (i) damage is caused to the equipment; or
      (ii) the data recorded on the equipment is damaged; or
      (iii) programs associated with the use of the equipment, or with the use of the data, are damaged or corrupted; and
   (b) the damage or corruption occurs because:
      (i) insufficient care was exercised in selecting the person who was to operate the equipment; or
      (ii) insufficient care was exercised by the person operating the equipment.

(2) The Commonwealth must pay the owner of the equipment, or the user of the data or programs, such reasonable compensation for the damage or corruption as the owner or user agree on.

(3) However, if the owner or user and the Commonwealth fail to agree, the owner or user may institute proceedings in the Federal Court for such reasonable amount of compensation as the Court determines.

(4) In determining the amount of compensation payable, regard is to be had to whether the occupier of the premises, or the occupier’s employees and agents, if they were available at the time, provided any appropriate warning or guidance on the operation of the equipment.

(5) Compensation is payable out of money appropriated by the Parliament.
74 Compensation for acquisition of property

(1) If:
   (a) apart from this section, the operation of this Act would result in the acquisition of property from a person otherwise than on just terms; and
   (b) the acquisition would be invalid because of paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution;
   then the Commonwealth is liable to pay compensation of a reasonable amount to the person in respect of the acquisition.

(2) If the Commonwealth and the person do not agree on the amount of the compensation, the person may take proceedings in the Federal Court for the recovery from the Commonwealth of such reasonable amount of compensation as the Court determines.

(3) Compensation is payable out of money appropriated by the Parliament.

75 Annual report

(1) The Regulator must, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, prepare and give to the Commonwealth Minister a report on the operation of the WELS scheme during the year.

(2) The Minister must cause a copy of the report:
   (a) to be tabled in each House of the Parliament within 15 sitting days of the day on which the report is given to the Minister; and
   (b) to be given to each participating State and Territory.

76 Review of operation of WELS scheme

(1) The Commonwealth Minister must cause an independent review of the operation of the WELS scheme to be undertaken as soon as possible after the fifth anniversary of the commencement of this section.
Section 77

(1A) The Commonwealth Minister must cause further independent reviews of the operation of the WELS scheme to be undertaken:
   (a) within 5 years after the completion of the review referred to in subsection (1); and
   (b) thereafter, within 5 years after the completion of the previous review.

(2) The persons who undertake a review under this section must give the Commonwealth Minister a written report of the review.

(3) The Commonwealth Minister must cause a copy of the report of each review:
   (a) to be tabled in each House of the Parliament within 15 sitting days of the day on which the report is given to the Commonwealth Minister; and
   (b) to be given to each participating State and Territory.

(4) In this section:

   independent review means a review undertaken by persons who:
   (a) in the Commonwealth Minister’s opinion possess appropriate qualifications to undertake the review; and
   (b) include one or more persons who are not APS employees.

penalties for contraventions of such provisions that do not exceed:

(i) for a body corporate—250 penalty units; or
(ii) in any other case—50 penalty units.

The following endnotes are included in every compilation:
- Endnote 1—About the endnotes
- Endnote 2—Abbreviation key
- Endnote 3—Legislation history
- Endnote 4—Amendment history

Abbreviation key—Endnote 2

The abbreviation key sets out abbreviations that may be used in the endnotes.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe the amendment to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, the amendment is incorporated into the compiled law and the abbreviation “(md)” added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the abbreviation “(md not incorp)” is added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.
