(6) If immovable property has been acquired by one or other of two spouses married in community of property in such a manner that the said property would on transfer or cession thereof become part of the joint estate, and the marriage has been dissolved by the death of one of the spouses before the property is transferred or ceded, the property shall be transferred or ceded to the joint estate of the spouses, pending liquidation thereof, and shall, subject to the provisions of any disposition affecting the property, be deemed to be the joint property of the surviving spouse and of the estate of the deceased spouse.

(7) When immovable property or a bond is registered in the name of a person, who has married since the registration was effected or who at the date of the registration was married out of community of property or whose marriage was not subject to community of property and who has since been widowed or divorced, it shall be competent for the Registrar on written application by such a person and on production of the relevant deed and of proof to his satisfaction of the changes in such a person's status, to record such change on such deed and the registers:

- (c) endorse on the bond that the estate of the deceased spouse is released from liability in respect of the obligation secured thereby and that the survivor has become sole debtor in respect of the bond.

(4) As from the date of the endorsement on the title deeds of the property in terms of subsection (1), the estate of the deceased spouse shall be absolved from any obligation secured by the bond and the survivor shall become sole debtor in respect thereof in the same manner as if he had passed the bond at that date.

 - (ii) notices of objection have been received but that all objections have been withdrawn in writing by the person making the objection or are deemed to have been withdrawn by virtue of the provisions of the proviso to subsection (2), the Registrar shall cancel the Deed of State Grant issued in respect of that land and endorse his registers accordingly and, thereupon, the land shall be deemed to be State Land.

(4) If the land subdivided as shown on the general plan forms a portion only of any registered piece of land held by the title deed the Registrar shall, on written application by the owner of the land, issue a certificate of township or settlement title in his favour in respect of the said portion as nearly as practicable in the prescribed form and in accordance with a diagram thereof.

(5) If the land subdivided as shown on the general plan comprises the whole or portions of two or more registered pieces of land, the Registrar may require the owner to obtain a certificate of consolidated title of the land so subdivided.

(6) The Registrar shall make on such certificate the endorsement mentioned in subsection (3).

(7) The provisions of section 41 and of section 38(3) to (8), inclusive, shall respectively and mutatis mutandis apply in respect of the certificates of township or settlement title mentioned in subsection (4), and the certificates of consolidated title mentioned in subsection (5).

(2) A bond may be registered to secure an existing debt or a future debt or both existing and future debts.

(3) Bonds intended to secure loans for building purposes shall be deemed to be bonds to secure existing debts.

(4) If in a bond purporting to secure a future debt the amount of an existing debt is mentioned, such existing debt shall be deemed to be secured as part of the maximum amount intended to be secured by the bond.

(5) Except as authorized by any other law or by order of the court, debts or obligations to more than one creditor arising from different causes may not be secured by one bond.

49. Requirements in case of bonds intended to secure future debts

(1) No bond attested or registered after the commencement of this Act shall be of any force or effect for the purpose of giving preference or priority in respect of any debt incurred after the registration of the bond, unless-

- (a) it is expressly stipulated in the bond that the bond is intended to secure future debts generally or some particular future debt described therein; and
- (b) a sum is fixed in the bond as an amount beyond which future debts shall not be secured by the bond.

(2) If a bond purports to secure payment by the mortgagor of the costs of preserving and realizing the security or of fire insurance premiums, cost of notice or bank exchange, such costs and charges shall not be deemed to be future debts within the meaning of subsection (1).

50. Cession of bond securing future debts

A cession of a bond passed to secure future advances may be registered and the registration of such a cession shall not affect the provisions of the bond relating to future advances up to the amount stated in the bond.

51. Exclusion of general clause in mortgage bonds

(1) Except as provided in any other law, the Registrar shall not attest any mortgage bond which purports to bind movable property or which contains the clause, commonly known as the general clause, purporting to bind generally all the immovable or movable property of the debtor or both and shall not register any notarial bond which purports to bind immovable property.

(2) No mortgage bond shall be passed by two or more mortgagors unless it purports to bind immovable property of each mortgagor:

Provided that land held subject to a condition that, on the happening of a certain event, such land shall revert to a person named in such condition, may be mortgaged by the owner thereof and such person by means of a bond passed by them jointly and severally, or may be mortgaged by the owner of such land with the consent of such person.

52. No bond to be passed in favour of an agent

 - (b) of all the property of any mortgagor may be registered unless such mortgagor is also released.

(2) No bond may be passed in favour of two or more persons in which it is stipulated that the share of one holder shall rank prior in order of preference to the share of another, nor may any transaction be registered which would have the effect of giving preference to one share in a bond over another share.

Rights of Mortgagees (ss 54-58)

54. Transfer of hypothecated immovable property

(1) No transfer of mortgaged land shall be attested or executed by the Registrar, and no cession of a mortgaged lease of immovable property or of any mortgaged real right in land, shall be registered until the bond has been cancelled or the land, lease or right has been released from the operation of the bond with the consent in writing of the holder thereof or unless, in the case of any such mortgage bond which has been lost or destroyed, the Registrar has on application by the registered holder thereof, cancelled the entry in his register in respect of such bond:

Provided that no such cancellation or release shall be necessary if the transfer or cession is made-

- (i) in execution of the judgment of any court by the competent officer;
- (ii) by the trustee of an insolvent estate, an executor administering and distributing an estate under section 43(3) to (7) of the Administration of Estates Act, the liquidator of a company which is unable to pay its debts and which is being wound up by or under the supervision of the court; or
- (iii) in any other circumstances in this Act or in any other law specially provided or as ordered by the court.

(2) A consent to the release from the operation of a bond of all the property mortgaged thereunder shall, except where the debt secured by such bond is further secured by a collateral bond, be deemed to be a consent to the cancellation of that bond.

55. Substitution of debtor in respect of a bond

(1) If the owner (in this section referred to as the "transferor") of land which is hypothecated under a registered mortgage bond (not being a person referred to in proviso (ii) to section 54(1)) transfers to another person the whole of the land hypothecated thereunder, and has not reserved any real right in such land, the Registrar may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of the said section, register the transfer and substitute the transferee for the transferor as debtor in respect of the bond where there is produced to him, in duplicate, the written consent in the prescribed form of the holder of the bond and the transferee to the substitution of the transferee for the transferor as the debtor in respect of the bond.

(2) In registering the transfer the Registrar shall-

(a) make, in the appropriate register in the prescribed form-

- (i) an entry setting forth that the debt of the transferor secured by the bond is cancelled; and

(d) make on the transfer deed an endorsement of mortgage containing the date and number of the bond and the amount due in terms thereof.

(3) As from the date of the transfer deed the transferor shall be absolved from any obligation secured by the bond and the transferee shall be substituted for him as the debtor in respect of such bond and shall be bound by the terms thereof in the same manner as if he had himself passed the bond and had renounced therein the benefit of all relevant exceptions.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply if the mortgaged land is to be transferred-

- (a) to a person who would not himself be competent to mortgage it;
- (b) to two or more persons, unless they take transfer of the land in undivided shares and renounce, in the written consent referred to in subsection (1) the exception de duobus

vel pluribus reis debendi; or

(c)

(5) Subsections (1) to (4), inclusive, shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of immovable property other than land which is hypothecated under a registered mortgage bond.

56. Returns by Master in connection with insolvent estates and further provisions relative to insolvent estates

(1) If it appears from the liquidation account of any estate which has been sequestrated or from the vouchers relating thereto that a payment has been made to any creditor on account of a registered bond, the Master shall notify the payment to the Registrar who shall thereupon write off the amount thereof in the appropriate register, on the registry duplicate of the bond and also if possible on the original bond.

(2) The holder of the bond shall deliver the bond to the Master who shall forward it to the Registrar in order that the amount may be written off thereon.

(3) Except in cases where an insolvent has been rehabilitated in pursuance of a composition made by him with his creditors, the Master shall from time to time transmit to the Registrar a return specifying-

- (a) the name and address of every person who has been rehabilitated after the sequestration of his estate; and
- (b) the immovable property and registered bonds appearing in the schedules lodged with the Master by or on behalf of such person or in the liquidation account of his estate, and upon receipt of that return the Registrar shall, in accordance therewith, cancel in the appropriate registers all bonds registered therein against the property of the said person prior to the sequestration of his estate and endorse the registry duplicates and, if possible, also the bonds themselves as cancelled.

(4) The holders of such bonds shall when requested to do so by the Master, deliver the bonds to him, and the Master shall forward them to the Registrar for cancellation.

(5) If any of the immovable property mentioned in the return has not yet been transferred by the trustee, the Registrar shall further note on the registry duplicate of the title deed of such property and in the appropriate registers that such property has in terms of the law relating to insolvency vested in the trustee.

(6) Immovable property which has vested in a trustee in accordance with the provisions of the law relating to insolvency and which has not in terms of that law been re-vested in the insolvent may, whether before or after rehabilitation of the insolvent, be transferred only by the trustee, and may not after such rehabilitation be transferred, mortgaged or otherwise dealt with by the insolvent until it has been transferred to him by the trustee:

Provided that if after rehabilitation, the trustee has been discharged or there is no trustee in existence, the Master shall, if satisfied that the rehabilitated insolvent is entitled to the property, give him transfer thereof in such manner as may be prescribed.

(7) If by virtue of the provisions of the law relating to insolvency an insolvent has been re-invested with the ownership of any property, such property may not be transferred, mortgaged or otherwise dealt with by the insolvent until an endorsement, in the manner prescribed, that the property has been restored to him, has been made by the Registrar on the title deed of the property.

(8) Nothing in this section shall be construed as modifying any provision of the law relating to insolvency.

(9) The provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of-

- (a) estates administered and distributed under section 43(3) to (7) of the Administration of Estates Act;
- (b) companies which are unable to pay their debts and are liquidated or wound up by or under the supervision of the court under the law relating to companies.

57. Endorsement of bond after sale in execution

(1) Whenever any mortgaged immovable property has been sold in execution of a judgment of a competent court or under express authority contained in a special law, to satisfy any debt due in respect of a registered bond or otherwise, and the proceeds of the sale have been paid to the legal holder of the bond, the sheriff or deputy-sheriff or messenger concerned or the person acting under the authority of such special law shall notify to the Registrar how much of the capital sum due in terms of the bond has been paid, and shall transmit the bond to the Registrar.

(2) The Registrar shall thereupon write off the amount so paid in the appropriate registers and on the bond and registry duplicate thereof.

58. Consent of bondholder to registration of merger of rights of mortgagor

If the holder of a mortgaged lease of land or of mortgaged real rights in land acquires the ownership of that land, or if the holder of a mortgaged lease of real rights in land acquires those rights, or if the owner of mortgaged land which is entitled to rights of servitude over other land, acquires the ownership of that other land, such acquisition of the additional land or rights shall not be registered without the consent in writing of the holder of the bond.

Notarial Bonds (s 59)

59. Registration of notarial bonds

(1) Every notarial bond executed before or after the commencement of this Act shall be tendered for registration in the deeds registry within the period of two months after the date of

(2) Unless so tendered, or if so tendered and rejected by the Registrar and not retendered within the said period, a notarial bond shall not be registered except upon an order of court within such further period as the court may direct:

Provided that if the Registrar suspends or refuses registration pending the submission of further information in order to enable him to determine whether any person mentioned in the bond is or is not a person whose name appears in any register or document in the deeds registry, such suspension or refusal shall not be deemed to be a rejection of the bond.

(3) Every notarial bond shall disclose-

- (a) the place at and the date on which it was executed, as well as the place where the notary practises; and
- (b) the place where the debtor resides and the place or places, if any, where he carries on business.

PART VI

General Provisions (ss 60-61)

60. Restriction on registration of rights in immovable property

(2) No condition imposed after the commencement of this Act, purporting to restrict the exercise of any right of ownership in respect of immovable property shall be included in any title deed of such property tendered for registration in the deeds registry unless such condition is capable of being enforced by some person who is mentioned in, or if not mentioned therein, is ascertainable from, the said title deed or from other evidence available to the Registrar.

61. Certificates of registered real rights

(1) Any person who either before or after the commencement of this Act has transferred land subject to the reservation of any real right in his favour (other than a right to minerals) may on application in writing to the Registrar accompanied by the title deed of the land obtain a certificate of registration of that real right as nearly as practicable in the prescribed form.

(2) Such person shall not separately mortgage or otherwise deal with such right or transfer a share thereof (if transferable) unless he has obtained such certificate in the manner aforesaid.

(1) Except as provided in section 60(2) or in any other law, a personal servitude may be created by means of a deed executed by the owner of the land encumbered thereby and the person in whose favour it is created, and attested by a notary public:

Provided that-

- (i) in the case of a servitude in favour of the public or of all or some of the owners or occupiers of pieces of land in a township or settlement, the Registrar may, if in his opinion it is impracticable to require such deed to be executed by the persons in whose favour the servitude is created, register such deed notwithstanding the fact that it has not been executed by such persons;
- (ii) where it is desired to register a road or thoroughfare in favour of the public at the same time as the registration of a subdivision which it serves, it shall in like manner and without the registration of a notarial deed be permissible to register it in the deed relating to the subdivision and also to endorse the deed of the remainder accordingly.

(2) Such deed shall contain a sufficient description of the land encumbered by the servitude and shall mention the title deed of such land.

(3) For the registration of such a deed, the title deed of the land and, if the land is mortgaged, the bond and the consent in writing of the legal holder thereof to the registration of the servitude free of the bond, shall be produced.

63. Restriction on registration of personal servitude

No personal servitude of usufruct, usus or habitatio purporting to extend beyond the lifetime of the person in whose favour it is created shall be registered, nor shall a transfer or cession of such personal servitude to any person other than the owner of the land encumbered thereby, be registered.

64. Reservation of personal servitudes

A personal servitude may be reserved by condition in a deed of transfer of land, if the reservation is in favour of the transferor, or in favour of the transferor and his spouse or the survivor of them, if they are married in community of property, or in favour of the surviving spouse if transfer is passed from the joint estate of spouses who were married in community of property.

65. Registration of lapse of personal servitude

(1) If for any reason a personal servitude has lapsed, the Registrar shall, if satisfied as to such lapse and on the application of the owner of the land encumbered thereby, note the fact to such lapse on the title deed of the land and on the title deed of the servitude, if any.

(2) Cancellation of the registration of a personal servitude in pursuance of an agreement between the owner of the land encumbered and the holder of the servitude shall be effected by notarial deed:

Provided that no such deed shall be registered if the servitude is mortgaged unless the mortgagee consents in writing to the cancellation of the bond or the release of the servitude from its operation.

66. Transfer and mortgage of land with personal servitude thereon or subject to a fideicommissum

(1) If the owner of land subject to a personal servitude and the holder of that servitude have disposed of the land or any portion thereof together with the rights of servitude to another person, they may together give transfer thereof to the person acquiring it.

(2) The transfer deed shall describe the transferors as the owner of the land and holder of the servitude respectively, but no mention of the servitude shall be made in the description of the land therein.

(3) The owner of land subject to a personal servitude and the holder of that servitude may together mortgage the land to the full extent of their respective rights therein.

(4) The owner of the land and the holder of the servitude may either of them as principal debtor mortgage the land or the servitude respectively and the other of them may in the same bond mortgage the servitude or the land as surety.

(5) Subsections (1) to (3) shall mutatis mutandis apply to land subject to a fideicommissum.

Rights to Minerals (ss 67-71)

67. Separation from ownership of rights to minerals

(1) Rights to minerals may be separated from the ownership of land by reservation under section 68 or 69 in a condition contained in a transfer of such land or by exclusion from a partition of such land in terms of section 70 or by cession of those rights by the owner of the land to another person.

(2) Such separation from the ownership may take place in respect of a portion of a registered piece of land, or of a share in the whole or a portion of a registered piece of land, and may be in respect of all minerals generally, or of a particular mineral or minerals.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, whenever rights to minerals have been separated from the ownership of land under any provision of this Act, such rights to minerals and the land shall thereafter each be held under a separate title even though the holder of the rights to minerals is also the owner of the land:

Provided that where the owner of the land is also the owner of all the mineral rights and such rights are unencumbered, it shall be competent to register a merger on application by the owner.

68. Certificates of reservation of rights to minerals

(1) Any person who transfers land subject to a reservation in his favour of rights to minerals thereon, or on whose land a township or settlement is established subject to such reservation, shall simultaneously with the passing of transfer or the opening of a register in the deeds registry for such township or settlement, as the case may be, take out a certificate of rights to minerals in the prescribed form in respect of the rights so reserved; where the register has been opened, a certificate may be taken out in respect of the remainder of the township or settlement.

(2) Upon the written application to the Registrar of any person who has, before the commencement of this Act, transferred land subject to a reservation in his favour of rights to minerals thereon and who is the holder of such rights, the Registrar shall, on production of the title deed under which the land is held, issue to such person a certificate of rights to minerals in the prescribed form in respect of the rights so reserved.

(3) The holder of the title deed shall upon the demand and at the expense of the applicant produce the title deed to the Registrar.

(4) Any person who transfers land in the manner described in subsection (1) or who is an applicant under subsections (2) and (3) shall, if the Registrar so requires, lodge with him a diagram showing the area in respect of which the rights to minerals are reserved.

(5) A certificate of rights to minerals referred to in subsection (1) or (2) shall-

- (a) set forth the rights to minerals to which it relates and any rights ancillary to such rights;
- (b) be signed by the Registrar and be registered against the title deeds of the land in respect of which such rights to minerals have been reserved, and when so signed and registered shall be the title to the said rights to minerals.

(6) If the rights to minerals are subject to a registered mortgage bond, lease or other deed affecting such rights, the said certificate shall not be issued except upon production of the bond, lease or other deed, and the Registrar shall, when issuing the certificate, endorse-

- (a) upon the bond, lease or other deed that a certificate of rights to minerals has been substituted for the title under which such rights were formerly held; and
- (b) upon the certificate of rights to minerals that these rights have been hypothecated, leased or otherwise dealt with in accordance with such bond, lease or other deed, and shall make the necessary entries in the registers; and thereupon the said rights to minerals shall be deemed to be as fully and effectually hypothecated, leased or otherwise dealt with as if they were still held under the former title.

(7) No rights to minerals reserved before the commencement of this Act, and still held under the title deed of the land shall, until a certificate of rights to minerals has been issued in respect thereof, be hypothecated, leased or dealt with otherwise than by way of cession of all such rights.

69. Certificate of rights to minerals reserved by State

The provisions of section 68 shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of a grant of land by the State made subject to a reservation of rights to minerals in favour of the State.

70. Exclusion of rights to minerals from partition of land

(1) If in any partition of land held in joint ownership the agreement of partition excludes from partition any rights to minerals in the land, the partition transfers shall set forth that exclusion.

(2) If rights to minerals are excluded from partition in accordance with subsection (1) there shall be lodged with the Registrar together with the deeds of partition, a certificate or certificates of rights to minerals in the prescribed form in respect of the rights so excluded.

71. Undivided share of rights to minerals

Section 32(1) shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of persons who jointly hold a certificate or deed of cession of rights to minerals.

Praedial Servitudes (ss 72-73)

72. Creation of praedial servitude by notarial deed

(1) A praedial servitude whether in perpetuity or for a limited period may be created by means of a deed executed by the owners of the dominant and servient tenements and attested by a notary public.

(2) If the servient tenement is mortgaged or subject to any other real right with which the servitude may conflict, the bond or other registered deed by which such right is held shall be produced together with the consent in writing of the legal holder thereof to the registration of the servitude.

(3) If it is sought to cancel a servitude, and the dominant tenement is mortgaged, the bond shall be produced together with the consent in writing of the legal holder thereof to the registration of the cancellation.

(4) Section 62(2) and (3) shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of praedial servitudes.

73. Conditions of registration of praedial servitudes

(1) A praedial servitude whether in perpetuity or for a limited period may be created in a transfer of land only if the servitude is imposed on the land transferred in favour of other land registered in the name of the transferor, or is imposed in favour of the land transferred on other land registered in the name of the transferor:

Provided that if-

- (a) the land to be transferred is admitted by the person seeking to pass transfer thereof to be subject to unregistered rights of servitude in favour of land registered in a third person's name;
- (b) the person to whom the transfer is to be passed had knowledge of the existence of the said rights of servitude at the time when he acquired the right to the land or consents in writing to such servitude being embodied in the transfer; and
- (c) such third person appears either in person or by duly authorized agent before the Registrar at the time of execution of the transfer and accepts the servitude in favour of his land, the servitude may be embodied in such transfer.

(2) The appearance of such third person as aforesaid and his acceptance of the servitude shall be recited in the deed of transfer and the title deed of the dominant tenement shall be produced for endorsement thereon of the terms of the servitude.

(3) If the servitude is imposed on other land in favour of the land to be transferred, and that other land is mortgaged or is subject to any other registered real right with which the servitude may conflict, the consent in writing of the legal holder of the bond or of such other right, to the registration of the servitude shall be produced, together with the bond or other deed evidencing such other right and the title deed of the servient tenement.

(4) In registering the deed of transfer in which the servitude is embodied the Registrar shall endorse the terms of the servitude and the number and date of the transfer on the title deed of the other tenement and if a bond or other deed is produced, as aforesaid, also thereon.

(5) In the subdivision of land which is entitled to a servitude over other land, it shall be competent for the owner when transferring such subdivision to stipulate in his power of attorney that the exercise of the rights is restricted to the land still held by him, and in that event the transfer of the portion in question shall make no reference to the servitude, nor shall it be necessary to record on the title of the servient tenement that the rights are so restricted.

(6) If in the subdivision of land which is subject to restrictive conditions in favour of a statutory body, such body consents to the subdivision contemplated, the consent shall in the absence of anything to the contrary therein contained, involve the application of all such restrictive conditions to each subdivision so authorized, and on registration of title of the subdivision the deed shall be drawn accordingly.

Leases (ss 74-79)

74. Registration of leases and sub-leases

(1) Except where provision to the contrary is made in any law, any lease or sub-lease of land or of any rights to minerals in land and any cession of such a lease or sub-lease intended or required to be registered in the deeds registry, shall be executed by the lessor and the lessee or by the lessee and the sub-lessee or by the cedent and the cessionary, as the case may be, and shall be attested by a notary public.

(2) If the land or right leased or sub-leased is mortgaged or subject to rights of any other person it shall not be necessary for purposes of registration of the lease or sub-lease or any cession thereof to produce the bond or the other deed whereby such rights are held or the consent of the legal holder thereof.

75. Termination of registered lease

(1) When a registered lease or sub-lease has terminated the Registrar shall, on written application by the owner of the land affected thereby, or the holder of the lease, as the case may be, accompanied by proof of the termination of the lease or sub-lease and, in the case of the termination of the lease, by the title deed of the land and, if available, the deed of lease, or in the case of the termination of the sub-lease, by the deed of lease and if available the deed of sub-lease, note, in the case of the termination of the lease, on the title deed of the land and on the deed of lease, if produced, or, in the case of the termination of the sub-lease, upon the deed of lease and upon the deed of sub-lease, if produced, that the lease or sub-lease as the case may be, has terminated.

(2) If the full term, including periods of renewal, of a registered lease or sub-lease has expired, no further transactions affecting that lease or sub-lease shall be registered.

76. Cessions of leases and sub-leases

No cession of a lease or sub-lease shall be registered in the deeds registry unless the lease or sub-lease has been registered therein.

77. Hypothecation of leases and sub-leases

No hypothecation of a lease or sub-lease shall be registered in the deeds registry unless such hypothecation is effected by means of-

- (a) a mortgage bond, if the lease or sub-lease is immovable property; or

(2) In registering such bond the Registrar shall endorse on the deed that the lease or sub-lease has been hypothecated by the bond.

(3) Section 54(1) shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of any lease or sub-lease so hypothecated.

79. Hypothecation of and settlement lease after exercise of option to purchase

(1) If in any lease entered into under any law relating to land settlement the lessee is given the option to purchase the property leased or any portion thereof, and he has exercised the option, the rights to the property so acquired by the lessee may, if the lease is registered in the deeds registry and is not subject to an existing bond, be hypothecated by a notarial bond.

(2) Section 78 shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of the registration of such a bond.

(3) If such lease is subject to an existing bond at the date of the exercise of the option the rights acquired by the exercise of such option shall be subject to such bond.

Prospecting Contracts (ss 80-81)

80. Registration of prospecting contracts

(1) If the prospecting rights granted under a prospecting contract are granted for a defined period with a right of renewal for any further period, registration of the contract shall be effective for that defined period only:

Provided that, if the holder of prospecting rights so granted under a registered prospecting contract lodges such contract at the deeds registry before the expiration of the said defined period together with an affidavit in terms of subsection (2), or within one month after the expiration of the defined period together with the grantor's written consent to such endorsement, the Registrar shall endorse upon the register of prospecting contracts and upon the contract and the registry duplicate thereof a statement that the said holder claims to have exercised his right of renewal for the period mentioned in the said affidavit, and the endorsement so made shall, as from the date thereof, be effective notice of the claim to all interested persons, other than the grantor of the prospecting rights, whose written consent to such endorsement has not been produced.

(2) The affidavit referred to in subsection (1) shall be made by the holder of the prospecting rights under a registered prospecting contract or by his duly authorized agent, and shall state that the holder has fulfilled all such conditions of the contract as entitled him to a renewal of the contract and that he has duly exercised his right to renew the same.

(3) If at the time when a prospecting contract is tendered for registration the defined period for which the prospecting rights were granted thereunder has already expired but a further period for which there is a right of renewal has not yet expired, the Registrar shall, upon the application of the person who was the holder of the prospecting rights under such contract and with the consent in writing of the grantor of those rights, register the contract, and the registration shall then be effective in respect of the period for which it is claimed that the contract has been renewed.

(4) If a document purporting to be a prospecting contract contains any ambiguity and such document is in the opinion of the Registrar liable to be interpreted as constituting a grant or lease of a right to minerals, the Registrar may register that document as a prospecting contract if a supplementary document executed by all the parties to the first-mentioned document or by their assigns, or affidavit by such parties, explaining the purport and effect of the prospecting contract is lodged at the deeds registry, and such document or every such affidavit shall thereafter be deemed to form part of the prospecting contract to which it relates.

(5) Where, in the circumstances provided for in this section, a prospecting contract has been duly registered in the deeds registry, no further prospecting contract or contracts shall be registered against the title deed or title deeds of the same property or properties in respect of the same mineral or minerals until such time as the duly registered prospecting contract has lapsed by effluxion of time or has been cancelled in terms of section 81 or 85.

(6) For the purposes of this section the grantor of prospecting rights means the person who from the records in the deeds registry appears to be the holder of the rights to minerals in the land in question.

81. Cancellation of registration on expiry of prospecting contract or failure to renew

(1) Upon the written request of the grantor of prospecting rights under a prospecting contract-

- (a) the registration of which has under section 80 ceased to be of effect; or
- (b) to the renewal of which no claim has been lodged at the deeds registry, or which, if such a claim has been lodged, has lapsed by effluxion of time, the Registrar shall cancel the entries in the registers relating to the contract and the endorsement of the contract upon the grantor's title deed of the land or the rights to minerals affected by that contract.

(2) For the purposes of this section the grantor of prospecting rights means the person who from the records in the deeds registry appears to be the holder of the rights to minerals in the land in question.

(2) An antenuptial contract executed elsewhere outside Botswana shall not be registered unless it has been attested by a notary public or has been otherwise entered into in accordance with the law of the place of execution and unless it has been tendered for registration in the deeds registry within six months after the date of its execution or the commencement of this Act, whichever may be the later date, or within such extended period as the court may on application allow.

(3) Unless an antenuptial contract has been tendered for registration in terms of subsection (1) or (2), or if so tendered and rejected by the Registrar and not re-tendered within the respective periods prescribed in the said subsections, the contract shall not be registered except upon an order of court and within such further period as the court may direct:

Provided that if the Registrar suspends or refuses registration pending the submission of further information in order to enable him to determine whether any party to the contract is or is not a person whose name appears in any register or document in the deeds registry, such suspension or refusal of registration shall not be deemed to be a rejection of the contract.

(4) A signed original contract (or an equivalent thereof according to the law of the country where it was executed) bearing the attestation of the notary public or otherwise duly authenticated as required by law, for filing of record as the registry duplicate, and a further signed original, similarly attested or authenticated, or a grosse or a copy of the original contract certified by a notary public, shall be tendered for registration.

(5) For the purposes of this section an antenuptial contract executed at Mafeking immediately before the commencement of this Act shall within Botswana be deemed to have been executed within Botswana.

84. Postnuptial execution of antenuptial agreement

Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 82 and 83 the court may, subject to such conditions as it may deem desirable, authorize postnuptial execution of a notarial contract having the effect of an antenuptial contract, if the terms thereof were agreed upon between the intended spouses before the marriage, and may order the registration, within a specified period, of any contract so executed.
