ENTITLED

FOOD AND DRUGS (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1996

AN ACT to amend the Food and Drugs Law, 1992 (P.N.D.C.L. 305B) to provide for the fortification of salt to alleviate nutritional deficiencies, to bring the provisions of the Law in conformity with the Constitution and to provide for connected purposes.

DATE OF ASSENT: 30th December, 1996

BE IT ENACTED by Parliament as follows—

1. The Food and Drugs Law, 1992 (P.N.D.C.L. 305B) referred to in this Act as the "principal enactment" is amended by the repeal of section 3 and the insertion of the following—

"Deception of consumers.

3. A person who manufactures, labels, packages, sells or advertises any food in a manner that is false, misleading or deceptive as regards its character, nature, value, additives, substance, quality, composition, merit or safety commits an offence."

2. The principal enactment is amended in section 4 by the insertion after the word “who” of the word "manufactures".

3. The principal enactment is amended in section 6 by the deletion of the words “licensed under the Manufacturing Industries Act, 1971 (Act 356)”.
4. The principal enactment is amended by the insertion after section 6 of the following new section 6A—

6A. (1) No person shall—

(a) mine salt for human or animal consumption; or

(b) import, manufacture, package, label, advertise, store, deliver, distribute, trade, sell or export any salt that is not fortified with potassium iodate in accordance with this Act.

(2) Salt is fortified where it has additives such as potassium iodate, protein, essential amino acids, vitamins, minerals, essential fatty acids or other nutritional substance added to it to enhance its nutritional value.

(3) The Ghana Standards Board shall determine and publish in the Gazette and newspapers nationwide the standard for the fortification of salt under this Act.

(4) No person shall label, package, sell or advertise salt in a manner that is likely to be mistaken for salt of the prescribed standard.

(5) This section shall not apply to salt for industrial or iodation purposes.

(6) Salt for industrial purposes shall be labelled clearly to that effect and stored and displayed separately from salt intended for human or animal consumption.”

5. The principal enactment is amended by the renumbering of section 7 as 7 (1) and the insertion of the following new subsection—

“(2) Food shall be stored and conveyed in such a manner as to preserve its composition, quality and purity and to minimise the dissipation of its nutritive properties from climatic and other deteriorating conditions.”
6. The principal enactment is amended in section 9(1) by the deletion of “£500,000.00” and the insertion of “£5 million” and the deletion of “£5,000” and the insertion of “not exceeding £500,000”.
