 - (ii) fail to disclose any material particular.

Offences

- 8. (1) A person who contravenes Regulation 3, 4, or 7 is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding €5,000 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 6 months, or to both such fine and such imprisonment.
- (2) An offence under these Regulations may be prosecuted by the Minister
- (3) Where an offence under these Regulations has been committed by a body corporate and it is proved to have been so committed with the consent or connivance of or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of any person who, when the offence was committed, was a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate, or a person purporting to act in any such capacity, that person, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished as if guilty of the first-mentioned offence.
- (4) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, paragraph (3) shall apply in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the functions of management as if such a member were a director or manager of the body corporate.

Defences

9. (1) In a prosecution for an offence under these Regulations in respect of which provision is made in the Commission Decision for a derogation to the relevant obligation imposed by the Commission Decision which would be capable of constituting a defence to the charge, it shall be for the person charged to establish any such defence and it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that there is no such defence in the particular case.
- (2) In a prosecution for an offence under these Regulations, it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove that the avian product in respect of which the prosecution is brought was, at that time, an avian product to which Article 9 of the Commission Decision refers that was accompanied by a certificate that complies with Article 10 of the Commission Decision.
- (3) In a prosecution for an offence under these Regulations, it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove that the live bird in respect of which the prosecution is brought was, at that time, a live bird to which Article 4, 5 or 6 of the Commission Decision refers that was accompanied by a certificate that complies with Article 7 of the Commission Decision.
