(2) The Chairman shall declare whether every resolution put to the vote has been carried or lost and shall cause an entry to that effect to be made in the minute book of the society which when signed by him shall be conclusive evidence of anything contained therein.

(3) The Chairman shall have one vote only and no casting vote.

(4) A resolution on which the voting is equal shall be postponed to a subsequent meeting.

23. (1) The Committee of a society shall be elected for a term of three years and no member shall be elected to a Committee for more than two consecutive terms.

Conduct of affairs of a Committee.

(2) The majority members of a Committee may for good cause suspend the Committee member subject to ratification by a general meeting.

(3) If during the term of office of a Committee, a vacancy occurs in the Committee, the Committee shall, if the number of members drop below five, co-opt a member of the society to serve on the Committee until the next general meeting of the society.

(4) Elected members of a Committee shall be removed only by a two-thirds majority of members of the society present and voting at a general meeting.

(5) If a general meeting removes a member of a Committee, it shall forthwith elect a new member who shall hold office for the remainder of the term of the member so removed and where the entire committee is removed from office, the general meeting may decide to elect or fix a day for election of an interim committee of not more than five members to hold office for a period not exceeding ninety days.

(6) The quorum at a Committee meeting shall be as laid down in the by-laws.

(7) The Committee of a registered society shall hold regular meetings at which—

- (i) the minutes of its previous meeting shall be considered and confirmed;
- (ii) the accounts, bank books and cash in hand shall be scrutinized and checked, and the Committee's observations thereon recorded in the minutes;
- (iii) any current business shall be considered.

(8) A person elected into a Committee of a co-operative union or apex society on the basis of his elected position at the affiliate primary co-operative society shall cease to be a Committee member of the co-operative union or apex society upon being replaced or voted out at the primary co-operative society.

24. (1) Every co operative union and apex society shall have a Board of Representatives consisting of at least one delegate from each affiliated society elected at its annual general meeting.

Board of Representatives.

(2) No member serving on the Committee of a co-operative union may be elected to serve on the Board.

(3) A chairman shall be chosen for each meeting from amongst the representatives in attendance at the meeting.

(4) Every representative shall hold office until the next annual general meeting after his election but shall be eligible for re-election.

(5) If during the currency of office of the board a vacancy occurs such vacancy may be filled by a nominee of the committee of the affiliated society concerned.

(6) The quorum at Board meetings shall be two-thirds of the total number of representatives.

Duties and powers of the Board

25. The Board shall be empowered to give directions in regard to the business of a co-operative society to the extent that it shall have authority to convene a special general meeting of the society when in disagreement with its Committee.

Meetings of the Board.

26. (1) The Board may hold a regular quarter yearly meeting at which the minutes of the previous meeting shall be considered and confirmed.

(2) The secretary of the co-operative society shall be secretary at all Board meetings.

(3) The Committee of the co-operative society shall send to each member of the Board agenda and minutes of all meetings of the registered society and communications in respect thereof.

(4) The Board shall send to the Committee of the registered society agenda and notice specifying date, hour and place of board meetings and may require the attendance of the Committee or any officer of the co-operative society at such meetings.

(5) The Board shall send to the Commissioner or his representative at the proper time, notice and agenda of every meeting, all minutes and communications in respect thereof and its recommendations, if any.

Appointment and duties of manager and other employees.

27. (1) Where a co-operative society, pursuant to section 27 (5) of the Act, employs a manager, his duties shall include—

- (a) general management of the society;
- (b) maintenance and custody of society books, accounts, assets, registers, certificates, society seal, cheque books and other accountable documents; and
- (c) counter-signing societies' cheques, contracts and other documents.

(2) All employees of a co-operative society shall be appointed in accordance with the terms and conditions of service approved by the Commissioner.

(3) The Committee of a co-operative society may, if it deems it fit, require the manager any other officer, on appointment, to give such security as it may determine.

28. (1) Every society shall have a supervisory committee consisting of three members each elected at a general meeting for a period of three years and one member of the supervisory committee shall retire annually.

Supervisory committee.

(2) Notwithstanding the provision of sub-rule (1), any member of the supervisory committee may be removed by a resolution of a general meeting.

(3) The duties of the supervisory committee shall include—

- (a) verification of all transactions of the society;

32. (1) Every member of a society may appoint his nominee or nominees for the purposes of section 39 of the Act.

Appointment of nominees.

(2) No member of a co-operative society shall be entitled to appoint more than one nominee unless that member holds more than one share.

(3) Where more than one nominee is appointed by any member, the number of shares to be transferred to each of these nominees shall be specified at the time of the appointment.

(4) Every appointment of a nominee by any member of a co-operative society shall be made in writing and signed by the member in the presence of two witnesses and shall be in Form VII set out in the Schedule to these Rules.

(5) Every appointment of nominee shall be acknowledged by the society.

(6) For the purpose of transfer to a nominee, the value of any share or interest shall be represented by the sum actually paid for that share or interest by the member holding it unless the by-laws of the society otherwise provide.

(7) Where the deceased member is in credit with the society, any nominee under this rule may be paid all dues on evidence of death being produced without awaiting lawful administration of the estate.

(8) Where any money is paid to a nominee who is a minor, a receipt given either by the minor or by his guardian shall be sufficient discharge to the society.

(9) If for any reason on the death of a member a nominee does not exist, the society may pay any money due to the deceased member to the personal representative or recognized heirs of that deceased member.

(10) In the event of any person so nominated dying or of the member desiring to cancel any such nomination, the member may from time to time nominate in writing another person in the same manner, and the necessary alteration shall be made in the register of members.

Copies of entries.

33. For the purpose of section 40 of the Act a copy of an entry in any book of a co-operative society may be certified as a true copy of such entry by the Chairman and one other officer authorized by the Committee.

Limitation of borrowing powers.

34.(1) A co-operative society which under its by-laws has power to borrow money shall from time to time at a general meeting fix the maximum liability which it may incur in loans or deposits from non members.

(2) Notification of the maximum liabilities fixed shall be sent to the Commissioner in Form VIII set out in the Schedule to these Rules.

(3) The maximum liabilities fixed shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner who may at any time reduce it or impose such conditions as he may deem necessary.

(4) Any member of the society may appeal against the decision of the Commissioner made under sub-rule (3) to the Minister within thirty days of such decision.

Restriction on borrowing

35. A co-operative society other than a society with authorization under these Rules to operate front office services, may receive deposits and loans from persons who are not members if—

(a) the general meeting is satisfied that the society needs the deposit or loan;

- (b) the general meeting is satisfied that the terms of the deposit or loan and the rate of interest are reasonable;
- (c) repayment of the deposit or loan is secured to the satisfaction of the general meeting;
- (d) the maximum liability fixed under rule 34 of these Rules is not exceeded; and
- (e) the general meeting has given specific approval for the deposit or loan.

36. Where the society invests in real estate other than for its own accommodation, it shall not hold more than twenty per cent of the equity in the investment or expend a sum exceeding twenty five per cent of its share capital in such venture.

Investment of society funds.

37. (1) Every co-operative society shall pay into the reserve fund maintained in pursuance to the provisions of section 47 of the Act, one-fifth of any net surplus resulting from the operations of the society during a financial year.

Duty to maintain reserve fund.

(2) The reserve fund of a society shall be invested or deposited in the manner provided for in section 45 of the Act and these Rules.

(3) No withdrawals shall be made from the reserve fund of a co-operative society without the consent in writing of the Commissioner and any such withdrawals shall be made good from the net available funds accruing to the society if the Commissioner so directs.

(4) The reserve fund shall be indivisible and no member shall be entitled to claim a specified share of it.

(5) The reserve fund shall be kept in separate account to be known as the reserve fund account.

(6) The society shall cause an annual audit of the reserve fund account.

38. (1) On the dissolution of a co-operative society the assets represented by the reserve fund shall be applied in the discharge of the liabilities of the society.

Application of reserve fund.

(2) Any assets that may remain after discharging the liabilities of the society, including repayment of share capital representing a balance of the reserve fund, may be applied to some object of local or public utility as may have been selected by a general meeting of the society:

Provided that—

- (i) if within three months of the dissolution of the society a general meeting fails to select an object, the Commissioner shall cause the funds to be deposited in a bank and on the registration of a new society in substantially the same area as that in which the dissolved society operated, the Commissioner may credit all or part of the funds to the new society; and

- (ii) if within a period of three years from the date of deposit of the funds in a bank no such new co-operative society is formed, the Commissioner may apply the funds to an object of local or public utility to be approved by the Minister.

Loans to members.

39. No loan shall be made to a member of a co-operative society save in accordance with the conditions laid down for the making of such loans in the society's by-law.

42. Upon registration of a charge, the society shall be issued with a certificate of registration of a charge as set out in Form XI set out in the Schedule to these Rules upon payment of a fee of two thousand five hundred shillings.

Certificate of satisfaction of charges.

43. The certificate of satisfaction of charges shall be in Form XII set out in Schedule to these Rules.

Remuneration of a receiver or manager.

44. Where a receiver or manager is appointed pursuant to section 54 of the Act, the Commissioner shall determine his remuneration.

Inspection of documents

45. (1) The by-laws, annual returns, audited accounts and balance sheets of every co-operative society and the register of charges shall be open to the public for inspection at the office of the Commissioner, on payment of a fee for one thousand shillings for each inspection.

(2) For every inspection made pursuant to section 57(1) of the Act the fee payable shall be one thousand shillings.

(3) The Commissioner shall upon request and on payment of a fee to be determined by him and not exceeding two thousand shillings for each copy, supply certified copies of the by-laws, annual returns, audited accounts and balance sheet of a co-operative society.

Inquiry by the Commissioner.

46. (1) Any inquiry held pursuant to section 58 of the Act shall not be conducted continuously for a period exceeding sixty days.

(2) The Commissioner, may pursuant to section 58 (4) of the Act, appoint a chairman of the interim Committee.

(3) The Committee shall implement the inquiry report and prepare for society elections.

(4) A copy of the inquiry report may be issued on application therefore and upon payment of a fee of two thousand shillings.

(5) A person may appeal to the Minister against the rejection of his application for copy of an inquiry report within thirty days of such refusal and a fee of one thousand shillings shall be paid on the filing of such an appeal.

47. Where the Commissioner exercises powers pursuant to section 60A of the Act a report of the inspection shall be filed with the management Committee within fourteen days of the conclusion of the inspection and the Committee shall act in accordance with the recommendations, if any.

Impromptu inspections.

48. A liquidator appointed under section 65 of the Act shall publish in the Gazette and in at least one newspaper circulating in the area in which the society whose registration has been cancelled, operates, a notice requiring claims against such society to be submitted to him within two months from the date of such publication.

Publication of notice requiring claims to be submitted to the liquidator

49. (1) There is hereby established an account to be known as the Co-operative Societies Liquidation Account which shall be administered by the Commissioner or his representative.

Liquidation account

(2) The following shall be paid into the liquidation account:-

- (a) all moneys realized in the liquidation where a bank account does not exist at the commencement of the liquidation;
- (b) any unpaid claims on closure of a liquidation; and
- (c) any surplus balance on closure of a liquidation.

(3) The following may be paid from the liquidation account—

- (a) claims, previously unpaid, subject to certification by the Commissioner or a person nominated by him for the purpose, within a period of two years from the date of the closure of liquidation;

(4) The Commissioner may authorize, after the expiration of two years from the date of closure of any liquidation, payment of balances of unpaid claims and surpluses from the liquidation account into the Fund.

50. No co-operative society shall invest its funds in non-core business, except with the approval of the Commissioner and by the general meeting through a special resolution.

Investment in non core business.

51. (1) Where upon inspection or inquiry, the Commissioner considers that a co-operative society accepting deposits from its members is bankrupt or insolvent, or that it has willfully violated the Act, or is operating in an unsafe or unsound manner, the Commissioner may issue an order temporarily suspending such operations for a period not exceeding thirty days.

Suspension of operations.

(2) The Committee shall be given written notice of the suspension, which shall include a list of the reasons for the suspension and upon receipt of the notice, the society shall cease all operations, except those allowed by the Commissioner.

(3) The Committee may within the time specified by the Commissioner, show cause why the suspension of its operations should not continue.

(4) The Committee may request for a hearing and may present its proposals to remedy the situation in order to resume operation of taking deposits from members.

(5) Upon receipt of evidence that the conditions causing the suspension have been corrected, the Commissioner may revoke the suspension and permit the society to resume normal operations.

(6) If the Commissioner after providing an opportunity for a hearing, rejects the society's plan to continue operation, he may issue an order of involuntary liquidation and appoint a liquidator and where the society fails to answer the suspension notice or to request a hearing within the prescribed time, the Commissioner may issue an order of involuntary liquidation and appoint a liquidator and liquidate the society.

Establishment of front office.

52. (1) Every co-operative society operating or intending to operate front office services, shall after a resolution of the general meetings apply in writing to the Commissioner for authorization.
