- (j) to do other things that will contribute to the advancement of the tourism industry.

6. (1) The Chairman shall preside at the meetings of the Board. The Chairman may nominate a member to preside at any meeting which the Chairman is unable to attend.

(2) The Board shall meet at such intervals as the members may decide, but not less than four times in each year.

(3) The Chairman may at any time and shall at the request in writing of 4 members and without delay convene a special meeting of the Board.

(4) A notice convening such special meeting shall state the purpose for which it is convened.

(5) Except in the case of a meeting convened for an urgent matter not less than three (3) days' notice of the meeting shall be given to the members.

(6) Five members shall constitute a quorum for a meeting of the Board.

(7) The decisions of the Board shall be made by a majority of votes of the members present. The Chairman or the member presiding shall, in the event of an equality of votes, have a casting vote.

(8) A member of the Board who is in any way directly interested in any decision to be made by the Board shall disclose the nature of his or her interest at a meeting of the Board and such disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting, and the member shall not take part in any deliberation or vote with regard to that decision.

(9) Subject to this section, the Board may regulate its meetings and procedures as it thinks fit.

7. (1) The Board shall appoint a committee for the purpose of managing the Tourism Marketing Fund and a committee for the purpose of managing the Tourism Academy and may appoint special committees consisting of its members or other persons for the purposes of discharging any of its functions.

(2) The Board may, subject to such conditions as it may specify, delegate to —

- (a) the Chief Executive Officer of the Board;
- (b) any member;
- (c) a committee referred to in subsection (1); or
- (d) any officer of the Board,

any of the powers and duties of the STB and such power or duty may be exercised or performed by the Chief Executive Officer, member, committee or officer as the case may be in the name and on behalf of the STB.

(3) Notwithstanding any delegation under subsection (2), the Board may continue to exercise or perform any power or duty so delegated.

8. (1) The Minister may give the STB directions in respect of the policy to be followed by the STB in the performance of its functions and the STB shall comply with those directions.

(2) The Minister may from time to time direct the STB to furnish him with returns, accounts and other information with respect to the affairs of the STB and the STB shall comply with such directions.

PART III – OFFICERS AND STAFF OF THE STB

9. (1) There shall be a Chief Executive Officer of the STB who shall be appointed by the President.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer shall be the accounting officer of the STB and shall be responsible for the administration of the affairs of the STB in accordance with the decisions of the Board.

(3) There shall be paid to the Chief Executive Officer such salary and allowances as are approved by the President.

(4) The President may appoint a Deputy Chief Executive Officer —

- (a) to perform such functions as may be assigned to the Deputy Chief Executive Officer by the Board;
- (b) on such terms and conditions as the President may determine.

10. The Board may appoint such officers and servants as it considers necessary for the efficient discharge of its functions under this Act on such terms and conditions as it may determine.

PART IV – FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

11. The funds of the STB shall consist of —

- (a) moneys voted by the National Assembly for the use of the STB;

- (b) moneys accruing to the STB from its operations or other payments;
- (c) moneys received by the STB by way of loans, donations, gifts or grants.

(2) The funds of the STB shall be applied in the discharge of the expenses in the carrying out of its functions, payment of remuneration to the members and employees of the STB and in the repayment of any sum borrowed by the STB.

(3) The surplus remaining after meeting the expenses of each financial year and making provision for bad and doubtful debts, depreciation of assets and any other purpose deemed necessary by the Board shall be dealt with in accordance with directions given by the Minister.

12. The President may by Order in writing, vest in the STB any right, interest, asset or liability of the Government and upon the making of the Order the right, interest, asset or liability shall vest in the STB.

13. The STB may, with the approval in writing of the Minister responsible for finance, borrow or raise money in such manner, from such persons, on such terms and conditions and against such security as it may deem appropriate for the purpose of discharging its functions.

14. (1) The STB shall prepare a business plan in respect of each financial year and submit it to the Minister for his approval.

- (2) The business plan shall —
 - (a) include a statement of short term and medium term objectives;
 - (b) outline the strategies that the STB intends to employ in order to achieve its objectives;
 - (c) include an operational plan, a financial plan consisting of estimates of expenditure and revenue for the following financial year and performance indicators.

(3) The STB may amend the business plan with the approval of the Minister.

15. (1) The financial year of the STB is the period of twelve months ending on the 31st December in each year:

Provided that the first financial year of the STB shall be the period between the date of commencement of this Act and the 31st December next following.

(2) Article 158 of the Constitution shall apply in respect to the auditing of the accounts of the STB.

16. The STB shall, not later than 6 months after the expiration of each financial year, submit to the Minister a report on the activities of the STB during that financial year.

PART IV – MISCELLANEOUS

17. All members and officers of the STB shall be deemed to be employed in the public service for the purpose of sections 91 to 96 of the Penal Code and those sections shall apply to them.

18. No liability civil or criminal shall attach to the STB, a member or an officer of the STB in respect of an act done or omission made in good faith in the performance of the functions of the STB or such member or officer as the case may be.

19. The Minister may make regulations for the purpose of carrying into effect the principles and provisions of this Act.

20. (1) The Seychelles Tourism Marketing Authority Act is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired or incurred by a person under the repealed Act shall not be affected by the repeal and any legal investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of such right, privilege, obligation or liability may be instituted, continued or enforced by or against the STB.
