Plant Health Act 1967

1967 CHAPTER 8

1 Objects of Act and competent authorities under it.

(1) This Act shall have effect for the control . . . of pests and diseases injurious to agricultural or horticultural crops, or to trees or bushes, and in the following provisions of this Act—

(a) references to pests are to be taken as references to insects, bacteria, fungi and other vegetable or animal organisms, viruses and all other agents causative of any transmissible disease of agricultural or horticultural crops or of trees or bushes, and also as including references to pests in any stage of existence;

(b) references to a crop are to be taken as including references to trees and bushes.

(2) The competent authorities for purposes of this Act shall be—

[\textsuperscript{F1}za] for Scotland, the Scottish Ministers,[\textsuperscript{F1}]

[\textsuperscript{F2}(a)] for England \textsuperscript{F4}—

(i) as regards the protection of forest trees and timber from attack by pests (“timber” for this purpose including all forest products), the Forestry Commissioners, and

(ii) otherwise, \textsuperscript{F5} the Secretary of State \textsuperscript{F6} ..., and

[\textsuperscript{F2}(b)] for Wales, the Welsh Ministers.]
2 Control of introduction of pests into Great Britain.

(1) A competent authority may from time to time make such orders as the authority thinks expedient for preventing the introduction of pests into Great Britain.

(2) Where it appears to the competent authority that the landing in Great Britain of articles of any description (and in particular plants, trees or bushes or any part or produce thereof) is likely to introduce a pest into Great Britain, the orders may prohibit or regulate the landing of those articles, and may direct or authorise their destruction if landed (without prejudice to provisions of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 imposing penalties or liability to forfeiture).

[F10(3) In subsection (2) above references to the landing of any article include references to its importation through the tunnel system as defined in the Channel Tunnel Act 1987.]
3 Control of spread of pests in Great Britain.

(1) A competent authority may from time to time make such orders as the authority thinks expedient or called for by any EU obligation for preventing the spread of pests in Great Britain or the conveyance of pests by articles exported from Great Britain.

(2) The orders may direct or authorise—
(a) the removal or destruction of any crop, or any seed, plant or part thereof, or any container, wrapping or other article, or any substance, which has on it, or is infected with, a pest, or to or by means of which a pest is in the opinion of the competent authority likely to spread;
(b) the entering on any land or elsewhere for the purpose of any removal or destruction authorised by the orders, or any examination or inquiry so authorised, or for any other purpose of the orders.

(3) The orders may prohibit the selling or exposing or offering for sale, or the keeping, of living specimens of a pest, or the distribution in any manner of such specimens.

(4) An order made by a competent authority under this section may provide that a person guilty of an offence against the order be liable on summary conviction to a fine of an amount not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or not exceeding a lesser amount.

(4A) An order so made for preventing the spread in Great Britain of the Colorado beetle (Leptinotarsa decemlineata) may provide that a person guilty of an offence against the order relating to the keeping of living specimens of the beetle (in any stage of existence), or to the distribution in any manner of such specimens, shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for not more than three months, as well as, or as an alternative to, a fine under subsection (4) above.

(5) Proceedings for an offence against an order under this section may be instituted at any time within twelve months from the day on which the alleged offence was committed.
4 Execution of Act by government departments.

(1) Orders under this Act may enable inspectors authorised by the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food or, in Scotland, the Secretary of State—

(a) in the case of any specified pest which has been introduced into Great Britain, to take the following action, that is to say—

(i) to remove or destroy, or cause to be removed or destroyed, any crop, or any seed, plant or part thereof, which has on it, or is infected with, the pest, or to or by means of which the pest is likely to spread; and

(ii) generally to take such steps as he may think expedient in connection with any crop, or any seed, plant or part thereof, for preventing the spread of the pest;

(b) to enter on any land [F18 or elsewhere] for the said purposes, or for the purpose of any examination or inquiry authorised by the orders, or for any other purpose of the orders; and may impose in respect of any certificate given in pursuance of the order after an inspection such fee or other charge as, with the consent of the Treasury, may be prescribed by the Minister or Secretary of State.

(2) The Minister or Secretary of State may pay compensation in respect of any crop, or any seed, plant or part thereof, which is removed or destroyed by or under the instructions of an inspector authorised by him; and its value shall be taken to be the value which it has at the time of the removal or destruction and, if the Minister or Secretary of State so requires, shall be ascertained by his officers or by arbitration.

(3) The expenses of the Minister and Secretary of State in the execution of this Act, including any compensation under subsection (2) above, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament, but shall not without the consent of the Treasury exceed two thousand pounds in any year.

5 Execution of Act by local authorities. E+W

(1) A competent authority may require a local authority to carry into effect any order under this Act, and may, with the consent of the local authority, require a local authority to pay compensation in respect of any crop, or any seed, plant or part thereof, which is removed or destroyed in pursuance of any such order; but—

(a) the local authority may withhold compensation in respect of anything removed or destroyed if, in relation thereto, the owner or person having charge thereof has, in their judgement, done anything in contravention of, or failed to do anything in compliance with, any order under this Act; and

(b) the value of anything removed or destroyed shall be taken to be the value which it has at the time of removal or destruction and, if the local authority so require, shall be ascertained by their officers or by arbitration.

(2) Every local authority shall keep, F20 . . . a record relative to proceedings in pursuance of any order made under this Act by the competent authority; and the record shall state the date of any removal or destruction in pursuance of the order, and other proper particulars, and shall be admitted in evidence.

[F21(3) The local authorities for the purposes of this Act shall be the councils of non-metropolitan counties, metropolitan districts and London boroughs and the Common Council of the City of London F22but, in relation to Wales, it shall be the councils of counties and county boroughs].]
5 Execution of Act by local authorities.

(1) A competent authority may require a local authority to carry into effect any order under this Act, and may, with the consent of the local authority, require a local authority to pay compensation in respect of any crop, or any seed, plant or part thereof, which is removed or destroyed in pursuance of any such order; but—

(a) the local authority may withhold compensation in respect of anything removed or destroyed if, in relation thereto, the owner or person having charge thereof has, in their judgement, done anything in contravention of, or failed to do anything in compliance with, any order under this Act; and

(b) the value of anything removed or destroyed shall be taken to be the value which it has at the time of removal or destruction and, if the local authority so require, shall be ascertained by their officers or by arbitration.

(2) Every local authority shall keep, a record relative to proceedings in pursuance of any order made under this Act by the competent authority; and the record shall state the date of any removal or destruction in pursuance of the order, and other proper particulars, and shall be admitted in evidence.

(3) The local authorities for the purposes of this Act shall be the councils constituted under section 2 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994.

6 Publication of orders.

(1) Orders under this Act shall be made by statutory instrument and shall be laid before Parliament after being made or in the case of an order prohibiting or regulating the landing in or exportation from Great Britain of any articles or the importation of any articles into Great Britain through the tunnel system as defined in the Channel Tunnel Act M21987, shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(2) When an order under this Act has been made, notice of it shall be published, if it relates to England and Wales, in the London Gazette and, if it relates to Scotland, in the Edinburgh Gazette.

(3) If, having made an order under this Act, a competent authority sends the order to a local authority for publication, the local authority shall publish it, in such manner as the local authority think sufficient and proper to ensure publicity.

Textual Amendments
