Enforcement Notices

6.—(1) Where beef or veal has been labelled and marketed in a manner which does not comply with these Regulations, an authorised officer may serve a notice on the person in possession of the beef or veal requiring its removal from sale until the label is removed or until it is relabelled in accordance with these Regulations; and any person who fails to comply with that notice is guilty of an offence.

(2) A notice may authorise the beef or veal to be sent directly for processing into products other than those indicated in the first indent of Article 12 of Regulation 1760/2000.

(3) A notice must state the right of appeal to a magistrates’ court and the period within which the appeal must be brought.

Powers of entry

7.—(1) An authorised officer may, on producing a duly authenticated authorisation if required, enter any premises at any reasonable hour for the purpose of ascertaining whether—
(a) there is or has been on the premises any contravention of these Regulations; or
(b) there is on the premises any evidence of any contravention of these Regulations.

(2) The officer may be accompanied by such other persons as the officer considers necessary.

(3) If a justice of the peace, on sworn information in writing, is satisfied that there is reasonable ground for entry into any premises (excluding premises used only as a dwelling) for any purpose mentioned in paragraph (1) and that either—
(a) admission to the premises has been refused, or a refusal is anticipated, and that notice of the intention to apply for a warrant has been given to the occupier; or
(b) an application for admission, or the giving of such notice, would defeat the object of the entry, or that the case is one of urgency, or that the premises are unoccupied or the occupier temporarily absent, the justice may, by signed warrant, authorise an authorised officer to enter the premises, if need be

by reasonable force.

(4) A warrant granted under this regulation shall continue in force for a period of one month.

(5) An officer who enters any unoccupied premises must leave them as effectively secured against unauthorised entry as they were before he entered them.

Powers of authorised officers

8. An authorised officer entering any premises under these Regulations may—
(a) inspect any beef or veal present on those premises;
(b) take samples (and, if necessary, send the samples for laboratory testing) from any beef or veal present on those premises;
(c) inspect any labels and relevant business records (including electronic records) in whatever form they are held;
(d) seize and detain any such labels and records (including electronic records) which may be required as evidence in proceedings under of these Regulations.

Obstruction

9. A person who—
(a) intentionally obstructs any person acting in the execution of these Regulations; or
(b) without reasonable cause, fails to give any person acting in execution of these Regulations any assistance or information which that person may reasonably require for the purpose of carrying out his functions under these Regulations; or
(c) furnishes to any person acting in the execution of these Regulations any information knowing it to be false or misleading,

shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalties

10. A person guilty of an offence under any provision of these Regulations shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

Appeals against notices

11.—(1) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of an authorised officer to serve a notice pursuant to regulation 6(1) may appeal to a court of summary jurisdiction at any time before the expiration of one month beginning with the date on which the notice was served on the aggrieved person, and Part VII of the Magistrates Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981(a) shall apply accordingly.

(2) On appeal against a notice served pursuant to regulation 6(1), the court may either cancel or affirm the notice and, if the court affirms the notice, it may do so either in its original form or with such modifications as the court may, in the circumstances, think fit.

(3) A person who is aggrieved by any decision by a magistrates’ court on an appeal under this regulation, may appeal to the Crown Court.

A senior officer of the Department of Agriculture and Rural Development

(a) S.R. 2001 No. 271
(b) S.R. 2005 No. 450
EXPLANATORY NOTE
(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations replace the Beef Labelling (Enforcement) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2001, as amended, with Regulations setting out requirements for the labelling of veal as well as beef.

They continue to enforce Title II of Regulation (EC) No. 1760/2000 of the European Parliament and of the Council establishing a system for the identification and registration of bovine animals and regarding the labelling of beef and beef products and subsidiary Commission Regulations. They also enforce the provisions relating to bovine animals aged 12 months or less contained in Council Regulation (EC) No. 1234/2007 establishing a common organisation of agricultural markets and on specific provisions for certain agricultural products as well as the provisions of Commission Regulation (EC) No. 566/2008 laying down detailed rules for the application of Council Regulation (EC) No. 1234/2007 as regards the marketing of the meat of bovine animals aged 12 months or less.

The Regulations are enforced by the Department of Agriculture or any District Council or the Department and any District Council acting jointly (regulation 4).

Breach of the Regulations is an offence punishable on summary conviction with a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale (regulation 10).
