(b) if, regardless of the present or proposed capacity of the elevated storage tank system the subject of the application, the Minister is satisfied that there is no undue risk that the purity of underground water in the source protection area in which the storage tank system is to be established, or increased in capacity, will be affected detrimentally, either directly or indirectly, by the establishment, or increase in capacity, of that storage tank system.

5.6.6 By-laws 5.5.2 (other than paragraph (a)) and 5.5.3, as they relate to permits, apply, to the extent that they are applicable and with appropriate modifications, to a permit applied for under by-law 5.6.4.

2 These by-laws have effect for the purposes of the Metropolitan Water Supply, Sewerage, and Drainage Act 1909 but the formal power to make them is now given by the Water Agencies (Powers) Act 1984 s. 34.

3 See Bush Fires Act 1954.

5 These by-laws contain an application provision concerning fees and charges for a period commencing before, or for a matter or thing done before, the by-laws came into operation.

6 The Metropolitan Water Supply, Sewerage and Drainage Amendment By-laws (No. 2) 1989 contains a savings and transitional provision (bl. 11) that is of no further effect.

7 The Metropolitan Water Supply, Sewerage and Drainage Amendment By-laws (No. 2) 2007 bl. 4 reads as follows:

4. Transitional provision

   By-law 28.1 of the Metropolitan Water Supply, Sewerage and Drainage By-laws 1981, as amended by these by-laws, applies, after the commencement of these by-laws, in relation to a permit to discharge industrial waste, whether the permit is granted before, on or after that commencement.

8 The Water Agencies Amendment By-laws 2008 bl. 3 reads as follows:

3. Application

   Nothing in these by-laws affects the application after 1 July 2008 of a by-law in force before that day insofar as that by-law relates to a fee or charge for a period commencing before that day or to a fee or charge for any matter or thing done before that day.
