(2) Any two or more bodies corporate are to be treated as interconnected if one or more of them is a subsidiary or are subsidiaries of the other, or if all of them are subsidiaries of the same body corporate.

Application 3. (1) Except as otherwise provided for in this Act, this Act applies to all economic activity within, or having an effect within, Zambia.

(2) This Act binds the State insofar as the State or an enterprise owned, wholly or in part, by the State engages in trade or business for the production, supply, or distribution of goods or the provision of any service within a market that is open to participation by other enterprises.

(3) This Act shall not apply to—

- (a) an agreement or conduct insofar as it relates to intellectual property rights including the protection, licensing or assignment of rights under, or existing by virtue of, a law relating to copyright, design rights, patents or trade marks;
- (b) activities of employers or an agreement to which employers are party, insofar as it relates to the remuneration, terms or conditions of employment of the employees;
- (c) activities of trade unions and other associations directed at advancing the terms and conditions of employment of their members;
- (d) concerted conduct designed to achieve a non-commercial socio-economic objective or similar purpose; and
- (e) the business of any enterprise exercising a statutory monopoly which precludes the entry of another enterprise into the relevant market in Zambia:

Provided that—

- (i) the enterprise does not enter into an agreement that has the purpose of restricting competition;
- (ii) the conduct of the enterprise does not, in itself or in conjunction with another enterprise, amount to an abuse of a dominant position; or
- (iii) the enterprise, if it wishes to enter into a merger transaction, is in compliance with the provisions of this Act relating to mergers.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of subsection (3), the Commission may apply the provisions of this Act to an agreement or conduct, where it has reasonable grounds to believe that the agreement or conduct involves a practice that

(a) is prohibited under subsection (1) of section nine or subsection (1) of section ten or

(b) disproportionately restricts or prevents competition.

PART II

THE COMPETITION AND CONSUMER PROTECTION COMMISSION

4. (1) The Zambia Competition Commission established under the repealed Act shall continue to exist as if established under this Act and is for purposes of this Act hereby re-named the Competition and Consumer Protection Commission.

- (k) co operate with and assist any association or body of persons to develop and promote the observance of standards of conduct for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the provisions of this Act; and
- (l) do all such acts and things as are necessary, incidental or conducive to the better carrying out of its functions under this Act.

Executive Director and other staff

6. (1) The Board shall appoint an Executive Director on such terms and conditions as the Board may determine.

(2) The Executive Director shall be the chief executive officer of the Commission and shall be responsible, under the direction of the Board, for the daytoday administration of the Commission.

(3) The Executive Director shall be an ex-officio member of the Board.

(4) The Board may appoint, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, such other staff as it considers necessary for the performance of the Commission's functions under this Act.

Inspectors

7. (1) The Board may appoint any suitable person to be an inspector for the purposes of ensuring compliance with this Act, on such terms and conditions as the Board may determine.

(2) The Board shall provide an inspector with a certificate of appointment in the prescribed form which shall be prima facie evidence of the inspector's appointment as such.

(3) An inspector shall, in performing any function under this Act—

(a) be in possession of the certificate of appointment referred to under subsection (2); and

(b) show the certificate of appointment to any person who requests to see it or is subject to an investigation under this Act.

- (4) An inspector may, with a warrant, at any reasonable time —
- (a) enter and search any premises occupied by an enterprise or any other premises, including a private dwelling, where information or documents which may be relevant to an investigation may be kept;
 - (b) search any person on the premises if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person has personal possession of any document or article that has a bearing on the investigation:
 - Provided that a person shall only be searched by a person of the same sex;
 - (c) examine any document or article found on the premises that has a bearing on the investigation;
 - (d) require information to be given about any document or article by —
 - (i) the owner of the premises;
 - (ii) the person in control of the premises;
 - (iii) any person who has control of the document or article; or
 - (iv) any other person who may have the information;
 - (e) take extracts from, or make copies of, any book or document found on the premises that has a bearing on the investigation;
 - (f) use any computer system on the premises, or require assistance of any person on the premises to use that computer system, to—
 - (i) search any data contained in, or available to the computer system;
 - (ii) reproduce any record from the data; or
 - (iii) seize any output from the computer for examination and copying; and
 - (g) attach and, if necessary, remove from the premises for examination and safeguarding any document or article that appears to have a bearing on the investigation.
- (5) An inspector who removes any document or article from any premises under paragraph (g) of subsection (4) shall—
- (a) issue a receipt for the document or article to the owner of, or person in control of, the premises; and
 - (b) return the document or article as soon as practicable after achieving the purpose for which it was removed.

- (6) A person who—
- (a) delays or obstructs an inspector in the performance of the inspector's functions;
 - (b) refuses to give an inspector such reasonable assistance as the inspector may require for the purpose of exercising the inspector's powers; or
 - (c) gives an inspector false or misleading information in answer to an inquiry made by the inspector;

commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

(7) An inspector shall furnish the Commission with a written report and any other information relating to an inspection, as the Commission may require.

(8) Nothing in this section requires a person to disclose or produce information or a document, if the person would in an action in a court be entitled to refuse to disclose or produce the information or document.

PART III

RESTRICTIVE BUSINESS AND ANTI-COMPETITIVE TRADE PRACTICES

Prohibition of anti-competitive practice, agreement or decision

8. Any category of agreement, decision or concerted practice which has as its object or effect, the prevention, restriction or distortion of competition to an appreciable extent in Zambia is anti-competitive and prohibited.

Horizontal agreements prohibited per se

9. (1) A horizontal agreement between enterprises is prohibited per se, and void, if the agreement—

- (a) fixes, directly or indirectly, a purchase or selling price or any other trading conditions;
 - (b) divides markets by allocating customers, suppliers or territories
- specific types of goods or services;
- (c) involves bid rigging, unless the person requesting the bid is informed of the terms of the agreement prior to the making of the bid;
 - (d) sets production quotas; or
 - (e) provides for collective refusal to deal in, or supply, goods or services.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years, or to both.

(3) An enterprise that contravenes subsection (1) is liable to pay the Commission a fine not exceeding ten percent of its annual turnover.

10. (1) A vertical agreement between enterprises is prohibited per se, and void, to the extent that it involves re-sale price maintenance.

Vertical agreements prohibited per se

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a supplier or producer may recommend a minimum re-sale price to the re-seller of a good or a service if—

(a) the supplier or producer makes it clear to the re-seller that the recommendation is not binding; and

(b) the product has a price stated on it and the words “recommended price” appear next to the stated price.

(3) An enterprise that contravenes subsection (1) is liable to pay the Commission a fine not exceeding ten percent of its annual turnover.

11. If an agreement prohibited under section nine or ten contains any provisions that are not prohibited, the provisions shall continue to have effect to the extent that they can be effected without the prohibited provisions.

Severability

12. Subject to sections eight, nine and ten, an agreement between enterprises is prohibited if the Commission determines that—

Other horizontal and vertical agreements

(a) the agreement has the effect of preventing, distorting or restricting competition or substantially lessening competition in a market for any goods or services in Zambia; and

(b) the agreement is not exempted under this Part.

13. Sections eight, nine, ten and twelve do not apply to an agreement to which all the parties involved are interconnected bodies corporate falling under a single economic unit.

Interconnected bodies corporate

Share of supply threshold for authorisation of restrictive agreements

- 14. (1) Where the parties to—
- (a) a horizontal agreement, together supply or acquire thirty percent or more of goods or services of any description in a relevant market in Zambia; or
 - (b) a vertical agreement, individually supply or acquire, at either one of the two levels of the market that are linked by the agreement, fifteen percent or more of goods or services of any description in a relevant market in Zambia;

the parties shall apply to the Commission for authorisation of the agreement in the prescribed manner and form.

(2) The Commission shall, upon receipt of an application under subsection (1), carry out an investigation to determine whether the agreement is prohibited under this Act.

(3) The Commission may, upon the conclusion of an investigation under subsection (2), approve or reject the application.

(4) The Commission shall where it rejects an application under subsection (3), inform the applicant accordingly and give the reasons therefor.

Share of supply threshold for establishing existence of dominant position

- 15. A dominant position exists in relation to the supply of goods or services in Zambia, if—
- (a) thirty percent or more of those goods or services are supplied or acquired by one enterprise; or
 - (b) sixty percent or more of those goods or services are supplied or acquired by not more than three enterprises.

Prohibition of abuse of dominant position

16. (1) An enterprise shall refrain from any act or conduct if, through abuse or acquisition of a dominant position of market power, the act or conduct limits access to markets or otherwise unduly restrains competition, or has or is likely to have adverse effect on trade or the economy in general.

(2) For purposes of this Part, “abuse of a dominant position” includes—

- (a) imposing, directly or indirectly, unfair purchase or selling prices or other unfair trading conditions;
- (b) limiting or restricting production, market outlets or market access, investment, technical development or technological progress in a manner that affects competition;

- (c) applying dissimilar conditions to equivalent transactions with other trading parties;
- (d) making the conclusion of contracts subject to acceptance by other parties of supplementary conditions which by their nature or according to commercial usage have no connection with the subject matter of the contracts;
- (e) denying any person access to an essential facility;
- (f) charging an excessive price to the detriment of consumers;
or
- (g) selling goods below their marginal or variable cost.

(3) An enterprise that contravenes this section is liable to pay the Commission a fine not exceeding ten percent of its annual turnover.

17. The Minister may, on the advice of the Commission, prescribe the procedure for determining the relevant product market within which the share of supply or acquisition thresholds are to be met under subsection (1) of sections fourteen and fifteen.

Determination of relevant product
market

18. (1) Subject to subsection (2), an enterprise that wishes to be exempted from a prohibition under section twelve may apply to the Commission for exemption in the prescribed manner and form upon payment of the prescribed fee.

Application
for exemption

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an agreement that is prohibited per se under this Act.

19. (1) The Commission may, after receipt of an application under section eighteen—

Determination
of application
for exemption

- (a) grant the exemption; or
- (b) refuse to grant the exemption.

(2) The Commission shall grant an exemption to an agreement that contributes to, or is likely to contribute to, or result in—

- (a) maintaining or promoting exports from Zambia;
- (b) promoting or maintaining the efficient production, distribution or provision of goods and services;
- (c) promoting technical or economic progress in the production, distribution or provision of goods and services;

- (d) maintaining lower prices, higher quality or greater choice of goods and services for consumers;
- (e) promoting the competitiveness of micro and small business enterprises in Zambia; or
- (f) obtaining a benefit for the public which outweighs or would outweigh the lessening in competition that would result, or is likely to result, from the agreement.

(3) The Commission may grant an exemption under subsection (2), subject to such conditions and for such period as it considers appropriate.

(4) The Commission shall, where it refuses to grant an exemption under subsection (1), inform the applicant accordingly and give the reasons therefor.

Amendment of exemption

20. The Commission may amend an exemption granted under section nineteen, if—

- (a) some other enterprise has succeeded to the interest in the enterprise exempted, by substituting the name of the enterprise with the name of the successor;
- (b) the name of the enterprise has changed, by substituting the name so changed; or
- (c) there has been a change in market circumstances since the exemption was granted.

Revocation
of
exemption

21. (1) The Commission may revoke an exemption, if—

- (a) the exemption was granted on materially incorrect or misleading information;
- (b) there has been a material change of circumstances since the exemption was granted; or
- (c) the enterprise exempted fails to comply with any condition upon which the exemption was granted.

(2) The Commission shall, where it proposes to revoke an exemption under subsection (1), give notice, in writing, of the proposed action to the enterprise to which the exemption was granted and request the enterprise to submit to the Commission, within seven days of the receipt of the notice, any representation which the enterprise may wish to make on the proposed action.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), an enterprise that does not comply with a condition of an exemption is liable to pay the Commission a fine not exceeding ten percent of its annual turnover.

22. (1) A professional association whose rules contain a restriction that has the effect of lessening competition in a market may apply to the Commission for an exemption of a prohibition under section twelve in the prescribed manner and form upon payment of the prescribed fee.

Exemption
in respect of professional rules

(2) Upon receipt of an application under subsection (1), the Commission shall—

- (a) publish in a daily newspaper of general circulation in Zambia, a notice of the application; and
- (b) give interested parties, fourteen days from the date of that notice, to make representations concerning the application.

(3) After considering an application and any representations received in relation to the application, the Commission may—

- (a) grant an exemption; or
- (b) refuse to grant an exemption.

(4) The Commission shall publish a notice of its decision under subsection (3), in such manner and form as it considers appropriate.

(5) The Commission may exempt all, or part, of the rules of a professional association from the provisions of section twelve if, having regard to internationally applied norms, any restriction contained in those rules that has the effect of preventing or substantially lessening competition in a market is reasonably required to maintain—

- (a) professional standards; or
- (b) the ordinary function of the professional association.

(6) The Commission shall, where it refuses to grant an exemption under subsection (3), inform the applicant accordingly and give the reasons therefor.

(7) The Commission may, where it considers that any rules of a professional association, either wholly or in part, should no longer be exempt under this section, revoke the exemption in respect of such rules or the relevant part of the rules, at any time after it has—

- (a) given the professional association notice of the proposed revocation; and
- (b) given interested parties fourteen days, from the date of that notice, to make representations concerning the revocation.

(8) The exemption of a rule of a professional association or the revocation of an exemption therefor, shall take effect from such date as may be specified by the Commission.

Publication of grant or revocation of
exemption

23. The Commission shall, as soon as is practicable, publish in a daily newspaper of general circulation in Zambia, a notice of every exemption granted, and of every exemption revoked.

PART IV

MERGERS

Definition of merger

24. (1) For purposes of this Part, a merger occurs where an enterprise, directly or indirectly, acquires or establishes, direct or indirect, control over the whole or part of the business of another enterprise, or when two or more enterprises mutually agree to adopt arrangements for common ownership or control over the whole or part of their respective businesses.

(2) A merger contemplated in subsection (1) may be achieved in the following circumstances:

- (a) where an enterprise purchases shares or leases assets in, or acquires an interest in, any shares or assets belonging to another enterprise;
- (b) where an enterprise amalgamates or combines with another enterprise; or
- (c) where a joint venture occurs between two or more independent enterprises.

(3) For purposes of subsection (1), a person controls an enterprise if that person—

- (a) beneficially owns more than one half of the issued share capital of the enterprise;
- (b) is entitled to vote a majority of the votes that may be cast at a general meeting of the enterprise, or has the ability to control the voting of a majority of those votes, either directly or through a controlled entity of that enterprise;
- (c) is able to appoint or to veto the appointment of a majority of the directors of the enterprise;
- (d) is a holding company and the enterprise is a subsidiary of that company;
- (e) in the case of an enterprise which is a trust, has the ability to control the majority of the votes of the trustees, to appoint the majority of the trustees or to appoint or change the majority of the beneficiaries of the trust;

- (f) has the ability to materially influence the policy of the enterprise in a manner comparable to a person who, in ordinary commercial practice, can exercise the element of control referred to in paragraphs (a) to (e); or
- (g) has the ability to veto strategic decisions of the enterprise such as the appointment of directors, and other strategic decisions which may affect the operations of the enterprise.

25. (1) A merger is subject to the provisions of this Part if it is reviewable by the Commission. Reviewable mergers

(2) The Commission shall review a merger if—

- (a) the merger is subject to prior authorisation in accordance with section twenty-six; or
- (b) the Commission elects to review the merger in accordance with section twenty-seven.

26. (1) Parties to a merger transaction that meets the prescribed threshold under subsection (5) shall apply to the Commission for authorisation of the proposed merger in the prescribed manner and form. Threshold for authorisation of proposed merger

(2) The Commission may, upon receipt of an application under subsection (1), approve or reject the application.

(3) The Commission shall, where it rejects an application under subsection (2), inform the applicant accordingly and give the reasons therefor.

(4) A merger that meets the prescribed threshold under subsection (5) and is implemented without the Commission's authorisation is void.

(5) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, on the recommendation of the Commission, prescribe the threshold to be applied for the purposes of subsection (1).

27. (1) Notwithstanding section twenty-six, the Commission may, where it has reasonable grounds to believe that a merger falls below the prescribed threshold, review the merger if— Other mergers subject to review

- (a) the merger is likely to create a position of dominance in a localised product or geographical market;
- (b) the merger is likely to contribute to the creation of a dominant position through a series of acquisitions which are not individually subject to prior notification;

- (c) the merger may substantially prevent or lessen competition;
- (d) the merger is concluded outside Zambia and has consequences in Zambia that require further consideration; or
- (e) as a result of the merger, there is, or is likely to be, competition and public interest factors which require to be considered.

(2) The Commission may, where it determines that a merger is reviewable by the Commission under subsection (1), request any party to the merger to submit to it any information on the transaction for its verification.

(3) The Commission may, within seven days of receiving and verifying the information under subsection (2), request the parties to the merger to apply to the Commission for authorisation of the merger in accordance with section twenty-six.

Negative
clearance

28. (1) Any party to a merger transaction seeking clarification as to whether the proposed merger requires the authorisation of the Commission under section twenty-six or is subject to review by the Commission under section twenty-seven, may apply to the Commission for negative clearance in the prescribed manner and form upon payment of the prescribed fee.

(2) Negative clearance, if given, does not commit the Commission if new information becomes available showing that such clearance is not appropriate.

Market
assessment

29. The Commission shall, upon receipt of a proposed merger notification, carry out a market assessment of the proposed merger to determine the likely effects of the proposed merger in the relevant market, on trade and the economy in general.

Competition
assessment

30. (1) The Commission shall, in considering a proposed merger, assess whether the merger is likely to prevent or substantially lessen competition in a market in Zambia.

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), the Commission shall in considering a proposed merger, take into account the likely and actual factors that affect competition in a defined market, including

- (a) the levels of concentration of players in the relevant market;
- (b) the creation or strengthening of barriers to market entry;
- (c) the level of imports in the relevant market;
- (d) the extent to which there is countervailing buyer or supplier power in the relevant market;

- (e) the availability of substitute products in the relevant market;
- (f) the likelihood of the merger removing from the market an existing effective and vigorous competitor;
- (g) the dynamic characteristics of the market including growth, innovation, pricing and other inherent market characteristics; and
- (h) the risk that a position of dominance may be abused.

31. The Commission may, in considering a proposed merger, take into account any factor which bears upon the public interest in the proposed merger, including—

Public interest
assessment

- (a) the extent to which the proposed merger is likely to result in a benefit to the public which would outweigh any detriment attributable to a substantial lessening of competition;
- (b) the extent to which the proposed merger would, or is likely to, promote technical or economic progress and the transfer of skills, or otherwise improve the production or distribution of goods or the provision of services in Zambia;
- (c) the saving of a failing firm;
- (d) the extent to which the proposed merger shall maintain or promote exports from Zambia or employment in Zambia;
- (e) the extent to which the proposed merger may enhance the competitiveness, or advance or protect the interests, of micro and small business enterprises in Zambia;
- (f) the extent to which the proposed merger may affect the ability of national industries to compete in international markets;
- (g) socioeconomic factors as may be appropriate; and
- (h) any other factor that bears upon the public interest.

32. (1) The Commission shall complete its assessment of a proposed merger and issue its determination within a period of ninety days from the date of the application for authorisation of the proposed merger, unless a party to the proposed merger fails to provide the Commission, during the period of assessment, information that is required for the completion of the assessment.

Period allowed for assessment

(2) Where the Commission does not issue its determination regarding a proposed merger, within the period specified in subsection (1), the proposed merger shall be deemed to be approved.

(3) The Commission may extend the assessment period referred to in subsection (1), by a period not exceeding thirty days.

(4) The Commission shall, where it extends the assessment period under subsection (3), give notice to the parties at least fourteen days before the expiry of the ninety days.

Undertakings
on proposed
merger

33. The Commission may consider any undertakings offered by a party to a proposed merger, in order to address any concern relating to the proposed merger that has arisen, or may be expected to arise, during the assessment of the proposed merger.

Determination of proposed
merger

34. (1) The Commission may, after the completion of an assessment and consideration of any representations on a proposed merger—

- (a) approve the proposed merger without any conditions;
- (b) approve the proposed merger with conditions or undertakings given by the parties to address competition and other concerns that may have arisen during the assessment of the proposed merger; or
- (c) reject the proposed merger.

(2) The Commission shall, where it rejects a proposed merger, inform the parties accordingly and give the reasons therefor.

Revocation of
merger

35. (1) The Commission may, at any time, revoke an approved merger if—

- (a) a party to the merger submitted materially incorrect or misleading information in support of the merger; or
- (b) a party to the merger fails to comply with any condition of an approval of the merger.

(2) The Commission shall, where it proposes to revoke an approved merger under subsection (1), give notice, in writing, of the proposed action to every party to the merger, and to any other person who is likely to have an interest in the matter, and call upon such party or person to submit to the Commission, within thirty days of the receipt of the notice, any representations which they may wish to make on the proposed revocation.

Compliance with other laws

36. An approval of a merger by the Commission under this Part shall not relieve an enterprise from complying with any other applicable laws.

- 37. An enterprise which intentionally or negligently—
- (a) implements a merger that is reviewable by the Commission without the approval of the Commission;
 - (b) implements a merger that is rejected by the Commission;
or
 - (c) fails to comply with conditions stated in a determination or with undertakings given as a condition of a merger approval;
- commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding ten percent of its annual turnover.

Offences relating to mergers

PART V

MARKET INQUIRIES

- 38. The Commission may initiate a market inquiry where it has reasonable grounds to suspect that a restriction or distortion of competition is occurring—

Initiation of market inquiry

- (a) within a particular sector of the economy; or
- (b) within a particular type of agreement occurring across various sectors.

- 39. The purpose of a market inquiry is to determine—

Purpose of market inquiry

- (a) whether any feature, or combination of features, of each relevant sector and each type of agreement has the effect of preventing, restricting or distorting competition in connection with the supply or acquisition of any goods or services in Zambia; and
- (b) whether any of the circumstances referred to in subsection (2) of section nineteen, apply to the sector or type of agreement on the same basis as they would have applied to any matter arising under section sixteen.

- 40. For the purposes of a market inquiry under this Part, the Commission may invite interested parties to submit information to it and may exercise, in relation to any enterprise that it considers to be involved in the matters covered by the inquiry, its powers of investigation under this Act.

Powers of investigation in connection with market inquiry

- 41. (1) The Commission shall, at the conclusion of a market inquiry, publish its findings in a daily newspaper of general circulation in Zambia.

Action to be taken following market inquiry

(2) The Commission shall, where it finds as a result of an inquiry that the adverse effects for competition specified in paragraph (a) of section thirty-nine exist in relation to a sector or a type of agreement and that paragraph (b) of section thirty-nine does not apply, or applies to a limited extent —

(a) insofar as particular practices identified by the inquiry are capable of being addressed as matters falling within section eight subsection (1) of section nine, subsection (1) of section ten or subsection (1) of section sixteen, deal with them in accordance with the provisions of this Act relating to such matters; or

(b) insofar as the adverse effects for competition cannot be remedied under this Act, or are the result of other applicable laws, make recommendations to the Minister for such further action, including amendments to applicable laws as is required to provide an effective remedy.

PART VI

SECTOR REGULATED ACTIVITIES

Application of Act to sector regulated activities

42. Subject to section three, the economic activities of an enterprise in a sector where a regulator exercises statutory powers is subject to the requirements of Part III.

Memorandum of understanding with sector regulators

43. The Commission shall, for the purpose of coordinating and harmonising matters relating to competition in other sectors of the economy, enter into a memorandum of understanding with any regulator in that sector, in the prescribed manner and form.

Market inquiry into regulated sector

44. The Commission may, where it determines that a regulated sector is unduly restrictive of competition, conduct a market inquiry into the sector, in accordance with Part V.

PART VII

CONSUMER PROTECTION

Definition of unfair trading practice

45. A trading practice is unfair if—

(a) it misleads consumers;

(b) it compromises the standard of honesty and good faith which an enterprise can reasonably be expected to meet; or

(c) it places pressure on consumers by use of harassment or coercion; and thereby distorts, or is likely to distort, the purchasing decisions of consumers.

46. (1) A person or an enterprise shall not practice any unfair trading. Prohibition of unfair trading practice

47. A person who, or an enterprise which—

(a) falsely represents that—

- (i) any goods are of a particular standard, quality, value, grade, composition, style or model or have a particular history or previous use;
- (ii) any services are of a particular standard, quality, value or grade;
- (iii) any goods are new;
- (iv) a particular person has agreed to acquire goods or services; or
- (v) any goods or services have sponsorship, approval, affiliation, performance characteristics, accessories, uses or benefits that they do not have; or

False or misleading representations

(b) makes a false or misleading representation concerning—

- (i) the price of any goods or services;
- (ii) the availability of facilities for the repair of any goods or of spare parts for goods;
- (iii) the place of origin of any goods;
- (iv) the need for any goods or services; or
- (v) the existence, exclusion or effect of any condition, warranty, guarantee, right or remedy;

is liable to pay the Commission a fine not exceeding ten percent of that person's or enterprise's annual turnover or one hundred and fifty thousand penalty units, whichever is higher.

48. (1) An owner or occupier of a shop or other trading premises shall not cause to be displayed any sign or notice that purports to disclaim any liability or deny any right that a consumer has under this Act or any other written law.

Display of disclaimer prohibited

(2) A person who, or an enterprise which, contravenes subsection (1) is liable to pay the Commission a fine not exceeding ten percent of that person's or enterprise's annual turnover.

Prohibition of supply of defective and unsuitable goods and services

49. (1) A person or an enterprise shall not supply a consumer with goods that are defective, not fit for the purpose for which they are normally used or for the purpose that the consumer indicated to the person or the enterprise.

(2) A person who, or an enterprise which, contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction—

(a) to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units; and

(b) to pay the Commission, in addition to the penalty stipulated under paragraph (a), a fine not exceeding ten percent of that person's or enterprise's annual turnover.

(3) A person who, or an enterprise which, contravenes subsection (1), shall

(a) within seven days of the supply of the goods concerned, refund the consumer the price paid for the goods; or

(b) if practicable and if the consumer so chooses, replace the goods with goods which are free from defect and are fit for the purpose for which they are normally used or the purpose that the consumer indicated to the person or the enterprise.

(4) The Commission may, in addition to the penalty stipulated under subsections (2) and (3)—

(a) recall the product from the market; or

(b) order the person or enterprise concerned, to pay a fine not exceeding ten percent of that person's or enterprise's annual turnover or three hundred thousand penalty units, whichever is higher, where the recalled product reappears on the market.

(5) A person or an enterprise shall supply a service to a consumer with reasonable care and skill or within a reasonable time or, if a specific time was agreed, within a reasonable period around the agreed time.

(6) A person who, or an enterprise which, contravenes subsection (5) is liable to pay the Commission a fine not exceeding ten percent of that person's or enterprise's annual turnover.

(7) In addition to the penalty stipulated under subsection (6), the person or the enterprise shall—

- (a) within seven days of the provision of the service concerned, refund to the consumer the price paid for the service; or
- (b) if practicable and if the consumer so chooses, perform the service again to a reasonable standard.

50. (1) A product that is sold in Zambia shall have a label to clearly indicate the product name, the ingredients used in the product, the date of manufacture and expiry of the product, the manufacturer's name, the physical location of the manufacturer, the telephone number and any other contact details of the manufacturer.

Product
labelling

(2) A person or an enterprise shall not sell any goods to consumers unless the goods conform to the mandatory consumer product information standard for the class of goods set by the Zambia Bureau of Standards or other relevant competent body.

(3) A person who, or an enterprise which, sells, exposes for sale, imports, displays or deals with a product in any manner contrary to subsection (1) or (2), commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years, or to both.

(4) The Commission may, in addition to the penalty stipulated under subsection (3)—

- (a) recall the product from the market; or
- (b) order the person or enterprise to pay a fine not exceeding ten percent of that person's or enterprise's annual turnover or three hundred thousand penalty units, whichever is higher, where the recalled product reappears on the market.

(5) A person who, or an enterprise which, fails to comply with an order under subsection (4), commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

51. (1) A person or an enterprise shall not charge a consumer more than the price indicated or displayed on a product or service.

Price display

(2) A person who, or an enterprise which, contravenes subsection (1) is liable to pay the Commission a fine not exceeding ten percent of that person's or enterprise's annual turnover.

Consumer
product
safety

52. (1) A person or an enterprise shall not sell any goods to consumers unless the goods conform to the mandatory safety standard for the class of goods set by the Zambia Bureau of Standards or other relevant competent body.

(2) A person who, or an enterprise which, contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction—

(a) to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years, or to both; and

(b) to pay the Commission, in addition to the penalty stipulated under paragraph (a), a fine not exceeding ten percent of that person's or enterprise's annual turnover.

(3) A person or an enterprise shall, in addition to the penalty stipulated under subsection (2), be liable for any loss or damage, including any indirect or consequential loss or damage, arising as a result of—

(a) the lack of conformity of the goods with the relevant standard; or

(b) the defect or dangerous characteristic on account of which the goods have been declared unsafe.

(4) The Commission may, where it has reasonable grounds to believe that a person or an enterprise is selling goods which are unsafe, after consulting the Zambia Bureau of Standards and such other relevant competent body as it considers appropriate, apply to the Tribunal for an order that—

(a) goods of a certain description are unsafe and that the sale of such goods to any consumer is prohibited; or

(b) goods of a certain description already sold to consumers are unsafe and should be recalled from the market by the supplier, who shall meet any expenses of the recall as well as paying compensation to the consumer from whom the goods are recalled.

Unfair
contract
term

53. (1) In a contract between an enterprise and a consumer, the contract or a term of the contract shall be regarded as unfair if it causes a significant imbalance in the parties' rights and obligations arising under the contract, to the detriment of the consumer.

(2) An unfair contract or an unfair term of a contract between a consumer and an enterprise shall not be binding.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), a contract shall bind the parties if it is capable of being enforced without the unfair term.

- 54. Any person who alleges that a person or an enterprise—
- (a) is practising any unfair trading;
 - (b) has made a false or misleading representation in respect of any goods, services or facilities;
 - (c) has displayed a disclaimer at any trading premises contrary to the provisions of this Act;
 - (d) has supplied defective or unsuitable goods or provided unsuitable services to that person;
 - (e) is selling goods that do not conform with the mandatory safety standards for the class of goods;
 - (f) has concluded or is enforcing an unfair contract or term of contract to the detriment of that person; or
 - (g) has contravened any other provision of this Act relating to consumer protection or has failed to comply with a requirement under this Act, to the detriment of that person;

Complaints on unfair contract term or trading practices, defective goods, misrepresentations, e.t.c.

may lodge a complaint with the Commission in the prescribed manner and form.

PART VIII

INVESTIGATIONS AND DETERMINATION BY COMMISSION

55. (1) Subject to subsection (4), the Commission may, at its own initiative or on a complaint made by any person, undertake an investigation if it has reasonable grounds to believe that there is, or is likely to be, a contravention of any provision of this Act.

Investigations by Commission

(2) The Commission may, where it undertakes an investigation pursuant to subsection (1), carry out public consultations on the subject of the investigation in such manner as it considers appropriate.

(3) The Commission shall, upon opening an investigation, as soon as practicable, give written notice of the investigation to the person who is the subject of the investigation or to an enterprise which is suspected to be a party to the matter to be investigated and shall indicate in the notice, the subject matter and the purpose of the investigation.

(4) For the purpose of an investigation under this section, the Commission may, by notice in writing served on any person, require that person to—

(a) furnish to the Commission, in a statement signed by that person or, in the case of a body corporate, by a director or member or other competent officer, employee or agent of the body corporate, within the time and in the manner specified in the notice, any information pertaining to any matter specified in the notice which the Commission considers relevant to the investigation;

(b) produce to the Commission, or to a person specified in the notice, any document or article, as specified in the notice, which relates to any matter which the Commission considers relevant to the investigation; or

(c) appear before the Commission, or before a person specified in the notice, at a time and place specified in the notice, to give evidence or to produce any document or article specified in the notice.

(5) A person who, or an enterprise which, contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or to both.

(6) The Commission may, where it has reasonable grounds to believe that the giving of a written notice under subsections (3) and (4) may materially prejudice its investigation, defer the giving of such notice until after the investigation is concluded.

(7) Notwithstanding subsection (6), the Commission may receive from any person any statement, document, information or article that may assist with its investigation.

(8) The Commission may, upon giving notice under subsections (3) and (4), invite comments from any party with an interest in the matter under investigation.

(9) Nothing in this section compels a person to supply any document or information which the person would be entitled to refuse to produce or give in civil proceedings before any court.

(10) The Commission shall, at the conclusion of an investigation under this section, publish a report of the inquiry and its conclusions in such manner and form as it considers appropriate.

(11) The Commission shall not investigate a matter that is before the Tribunal unless the Tribunal directs otherwise.

56. (1) The Commission shall, where it receives a request from any person to investigate a matter and determines that a request is frivolous or vexatious, dismiss the request and inform, in writing, that person of its decision and the reasons therefor.

Decision not to investigate

(2) The Commission may refer a request received from a person or an enterprise to another regulatory authority and shall inform the person or the enterprise of the reasons for its decision.

57. (1) The Commission may, at any time, during or after an investigation under this Part, enter into a consent agreement with an enterprise under investigation or request the enterprise to give an undertaking in the prescribed manner and form.

Consent agreement and undertaking

(2) The Commission shall, upon entering into a consent agreement with an enterprise, or receiving an undertaking from an enterprise under subsection (1), submit the consent agreement or undertaking, as the case may be, to the Tribunal for confirmation.

(3) The Tribunal may, upon receipt of the consent agreement or undertaking under subsection (2)—

(a) give or withhold its confirmation; or

(b) return the matter to the Commission with an indication of any changes that need to be made to the consent agreement or undertaking before the Tribunal confirms it.

(4) An undertaking confirmed by the Tribunal shall—

(a) be published by the Commission in the form of a decision of the Commission; and

(b) have effect as if it were a direction of the Commission under section fifty-nine.

(5) A person who, or an enterprise which, fails to comply with any conditions stated in a consent agreement or with any undertaking given by the person or the enterprise is liable to pay the Commission a fine not exceeding ten percent of that person's or an enterprise's annual turnover.

Directions
relating to restrictive
agreements

58. (1) The Commission may, where a restrictive agreement falls within the scope of sections eight, nine, ten and twelve, give an enterprise such directions, in writing, as the Commission considers appropriate to ensure that the enterprise ceases to be a party to the restrictive agreement.

(2) A direction under subsection (1) may, in particular, require an enterprise to terminate or modify the restrictive agreement concerned within such period as may be specified by the Commission.

(3) The Commission may, in relation to a restrictive agreement referred to under subsection (1), in addition to, or instead of, giving a direction, make an order imposing a financial penalty on the enterprise not exceeding ten percent of that enterprise's annual turnover during the period of the breach of the prohibition up to a maximum period of five years.

(4) The Commission shall not impose a financial penalty unless it is satisfied that the breach of the prohibition was committed intentionally or negligently.

(5) An order imposing a penalty under subsection (3) shall be in writing and shall specify the date by which the penalty is required to be paid.

(6) The date specified under subsection (5) shall not be earlier than the end of the period within which an appeal against the order may be brought under section sixty-one.

(7) Where a penalty has not been paid within the specified date and—

(a) an appeal against the order is not made under section sixty; or

(b) an appeal was made but dismissed or withdrawn;

the Commission may apply to the Tribunal for a mandatory order to enforce the payment of the penalty against the enterprise concerned.

Directions
relating to distortion, prevention
or restriction
of
competition

59. (1) Where the Commission determines, after review, that an enterprise is a party to a restrictive agreement referred to under section eight, nine, ten or twelve or that it is a party to a dominant position within the terms of section sixteen, and that—

- (a) in relation to the restrictive agreement, the agreement has the object or effect of preventing, restricting or distorting competition; or
- (b) in relation to the dominant position, any conduct of the enterprise—
 - (i) has the object or effect of preventing, restricting or distorting competition; or
 - (ii) in any other way, constitutes exploitation of the monopoly situation, the Commission may give the enterprise such directions as it considers necessary, reasonable and practicable to—
 - (A) remedy, mitigate or prevent the adverse effects on competition that the Commission has identified; or
 - (B) remedy, mitigate or prevent any detrimental effects on users and consumers so far as they have resulted from, or are likely to result from, the adverse effects on, or the absence of, competition.

(2) The Commission shall, in determining, in any particular case, the remedial measures required to be taken, have regard to the extent to which any of the offsetting benefits specified in subsection (2) of section nineteen are present in that case.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), a direction under this section may include a requirement that the enterprise to which it is given shall—

- (a) terminate or amend an agreement;
- (b) cease or amend a practice or course of conduct, including conduct in relation to prices;
- (c) supply goods or services, or grant access to facilities;
- (d) separate or divest itself of any enterprise or assets; or
- (e) provide the Commission with specified information on a continuing basis.

(4) A direction given under this section shall be in writing.

60. A person who, or an enterprise which, is aggrieved with an order or direction of the Commission under this Part may, within thirty days of receiving the order or direction, appeal to the Tribunal.

Appeals

Remedies in merger
control

61. (1) The Commission may, where it determines after an investigation that an enterprise is a party to a merger and the creation of a merger has resulted, or is likely to result, in a substantial lessening of competition within a market for goods or services, give the enterprise such directions as it considers necessary, reasonable and practicable to—

(a) remedy, mitigate or prevent the substantial lessening of competition; and

(b) remedy, mitigate or prevent any adverse effects that have resulted from, or are likely to result from, the substantial lessening of competition.

(2) The Commission may, in the case of a prospective merger, require an enterprise to—

(a) desist from completion or implementation of the merger insofar as it relates to a market in Zambia;

(b) divest such assets as are specified in a direction within the period so specified in the direction, before the merger can be completed or implemented; or

(c) adopt, or desist from, such conduct, including conduct in relation to prices, as is specified in a direction as a condition of proceeding with the merger.

(3) The Commission may, in the case of a completed merger, require an enterprise to—

(a) divest itself of such assets as are specified in a direction within the period so specified in the direction; or

(b) adopt, or to desist from, such conduct, including conduct in relation to prices, as is specified in the direction as a condition of maintaining or proceeding with the merger.

Interim measures

62. (1) Where—

(a) the Commission has reasonable grounds to suspect that an enterprise is a party to a prohibited agreement and has not completed its examination of the matter, but believes that there is the risk of serious or irreparable injury to a particular person as a consequence of the agreement;

(b) an enterprise is a party to an agreement which is subject to review, to a monopoly situation or to a merger, on which the Commission has opened but not completed an investigation, and the Commission is satisfied that—

- (i) there is prima facie evidence that competition is being prevented, restricted, distorted or substantially lessened and that, in consequence, serious or irreparable damage may be caused to a particular person; or
- (ii) the enterprise is taking steps that would effectively pre-empt remedial action being taken that would restore the conditions of competition existing prior to the investigation;

the Commission may, in writing, give such directions as it considers appropriate if, as a matter of urgency, it considers it is necessary to do so—

- (A) prevent serious or irreparable injury to a particular person or category of persons;
- (B) protect the public interest; or
- (C) prevent or pre-empt action being taken by the enterprise under investigation.

(2) The Commission shall give an enterprise to which it intends to give a direction under this section an opportunity to make representations before the direction is given.

63. (1) The Commission shall keep under review the compliance with directions given by it and the performance of undertakings given by an enterprise.

Review of directions
and undertakings

(2) The Commission may, where it is satisfied that there has been a material change of circumstance—

- (a) agree to vary or terminate a direction; or
- (b) accept a variation to an undertaking, or release an enterprise from an undertaking.

64. (1) Where the Commission determines that an enterprise has failed, without reasonable cause, to comply with a direction or undertaking, it may, subject to subsection (2), apply to the Tribunal for a mandatory order requiring the enterprise to make good the default within a time specified in the order.

Enforcement
of directions
and
undertakings

(2) The Commission shall consider any representations an enterprise wishes to make before making an application under subsection (1).

(3) The Tribunal may provide in the order that all the costs of, or incidental to, the application shall be borne by the enterprise in default.

Enforcement
of competition
law at request of foreign
authority

65. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), a foreign competition authority may, where it has reasonable grounds to believe that anti-competitive practices in Zambia are damaging competition in the country of the authority, request the Commission to investigate and make an appropriate determination.

(2) Subsection (1) applies—

(a) to requests from other members of the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa or of the Southern African Development Community by virtue of the obligations assumed by Zambia towards these organisations; and

(b) where the Minister has certified by order, in the Gazette, that Zambia has entered into an agreement with one or more States or organisations whereby, on a basis of reciprocity, each party to the agreement shall exercise the principle of comity on the basis described in subsection (1) in investigating and determining cases falling within its jurisdiction.

Regulations
relating to investigations

66. The Minister may, by statutory instrument, on the recommendation of the Commission, make regulations to provide for the manner in which investigations under this Part shall be carried out.

PART IX

THE COMPETITION AND CONSUMER PROTECTION TRIBUNAL

Establishment
of Competition
and Consumer
Protection
Tribunal

67. (1) There is hereby established the Competition and Consumer Protection Tribunal which shall consist of the following part-time members appointed by the Minister:

(a) a legal practitioner of not less than ten years legal experience, who shall be the Chairperson;

(b) a representative of the Attorney-General, who shall be the Vice-Chairperson; and

(c) three other members who shall be experts, with not less than five years experience and knowledge, in matters relevant to this Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (5), a member of the Tribunal shall hold office for a period of four years from the date of appointment and may be re-appointed for a further term of four years.

(3) The Minister may appoint alternate members of the Tribunal referred to in paragraph (c) who shall have, and may perform, the functions of a member during a member's absence.

(4) A person shall not be appointed as a member of the Tribunal if the person—

(a) is an undischarged bankrupt;

(b) is insane or of unsound mind;

(c) is in lawful custody or the person's freedom of movement is restricted under any law in force within or outside Zambia; or

(d) has been convicted of an offence under any law.

(5) The office of a member of the Tribunal shall become vacant—

(a) upon the member's death;

(b) if a member is absent without reasonable excuse from three consecutive sittings of the Tribunal of which the member had notice;

(c) if the member is removed by the Minister;

(d) if the member is adjudged bankrupt;

(e) if the member becomes mentally or physically incapable of performing the duties of a member;

(f) if the member is convicted of an offence under any law and sentenced therefor to imprisonment for a period exceeding six months; or

(g) in the case of a member referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1), if that member ceases to practise as a legal practitioner on disciplinary grounds confirmed by the Law Association of Zambia.

(6) If a vacancy occurs in accordance with subsection (5), the Minister may appoint a new member in accordance with subsection (1), but the member shall hold office only for the unexpired period of the term.

68. The functions of the Tribunal are to—

(a) hear any appeal made to it under this Act; and

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person who immediately before the commencement of this Act held office as a member of the Board of the former Commission shall hold office as a member of the Board for a period of three months after which the Minister shall appoint the members of the Board in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

FIRST SCHEDULE

(Section 4(3))

ADMINISTRATION OF COMMISSION

PART I

THE BOARD OF THE COMMISSION

Composition of Board of Commission

1. (1) There is hereby constituted a Board of the Commission which shall consist of the following members appointed by the Minister:

- (a) a representative from the Ministry responsible for commerce;
- (b) a representative of the Attorney General; and
- (c) five other members, with experience and knowledge in matters relevant to this Act, appointed by the Minister.

(2) The Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson of the Board shall be appointed by the Minister from amongst the members of the Board.

(3) A person shall not be eligible for appointment as a member of the Board if—

- (a) that person is under any written law, adjudged or otherwise declared to be of unsound mind;
- (b) that person is adjudged or declared bankrupt under any written law in Zambia; or
- (c) that person has been convicted of an offence under this Act or any other law.

Seal of Commission

2. (1) The seal of the Commission shall be such device as may be determined by the Commission and shall be kept by the Executive Director.

(2) The Chairperson or the Vice-Chairperson, the Executive Director or any other person authorised by a resolution of the Commission to so act, shall authenticate the affixing of the seal.

(3) Where a contract or instrument is not required to be under seal, the Executive Director or a person authorised by the Commission in that behalf, may execute the contract or instrument on behalf of the Commission without seal.

(4) A document purporting to be a document under the seal of the Commission or issued on behalf of the Commission, shall be received in evidence and shall be executed or issued, as the case may be, without further proof, unless the contrary is proved.

3. (1) A member of the Board shall, subject to the other provisions of this Schedule, hold office for a term of four years and may be reappointed for a further term of four years.

Tenure of office and vacancy of member

(2) Upon the expiration of the term for which a member is appointed, the member shall continue to hold office until another member is appointed, but in no case shall any extension of the period exceed three months.

(3) The office of a member shall be vacated—

(a) upon the member's death;

(b) if the member is adjudged bankrupt;

(c) if the member is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Commission, of which the member has had notice, without the prior approval of the Commission;

(d) upon the expiry of one month's notice of the member's intention to resign, given by the member in writing to the Minister;

(e) if the member becomes mentally or physically incapable of performing duties as a member;

(f) if the member is removed by the Minister; or

(g) if the member is convicted of an offence under this Act or any other law.

(4) Where there is a vacancy in the membership of the Board before the expiry of the term of office, the Minister shall appoint another person to replace the member who vacates office but that person shall only hold office for the remainder of the term.

4. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Board may regulate its own procedure.

Proceedings of Board

(2) The Board shall meet for the transaction of its business at least once in every three months at such places and times as the Board may determine.

(3) Upon giving notice of not less than fourteen days, a meeting of the Board may be called by the Chairperson and shall be called if not less than one third of the members so request in writing:

Provided that if the urgency of a particular matter does not permit the giving of any notice, a special meeting may be called upon giving a shorter notice.

- (4) Four members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.
- (5) There shall preside at a meeting of the Board—
- (a) the Chairperson;
 - (b) in the absence of the Chairperson, the ViceChairperson;
or
 - (c) in the absence of the Chairperson and the ViceChairperson, such member of the Board as the members present may elect from amongst themselves for the purpose of that meeting.
- (6) A decision of the Board on any question shall be by a majority of the members present and voting at the meeting and, in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have, in addition to a deliberative vote, a casting vote.
- (7) Where a member is for any reason unable to attend any meeting of the Board, the member may, in writing, nominate another person from the same organisation to attend a meeting in that member's stead and such person shall be deemed to be a member for the purpose of that meeting.
- (8) The Board may invite any person whose presence, in its opinion, is desirable to attend and participate in the deliberations of a meeting of the Board, but that person shall have no vote.
- (9) The validity of any proceedings, act or decision of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership of the Board or any defect in the appointment of any member or by reason that any person not entitled to do so, took part in the proceedings.
- (10) The Board shall cause minutes to be kept of the proceedings of every meeting of the Board.

Committees

- 5. (1) The Board may, for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, constitute a committee and delegate to the committee such functions of the Board as it considers necessary.
- (2) The Board may appoint as members of a committee constituted under subparagraph (1), persons who are or are not members of the Board and such persons shall hold office for such period as the Board may determine.
- (3) Subject to any specific or general direction of the Board, any committee constituted under this paragraph may regulate its own procedure.

6. A member of the Board or any committee of the Board thereof shall be paid such allowances as the Board may, with the approval of the Minister, determine.

Allowances

7. (1) If any person is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board at which any matter, in which that person or any member of the person's immediate family is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity, is the subject of consideration, that person shall, as soon as practicable after the commencement of the meeting, disclose that interest and shall not, unless the Board or the committee otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question relating to that matter.

Disclosure of interest

(2) A disclosure of interest made under this paragraph shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which the disclosure is made.

8. (1) A person shall not, without the consent in writing given by, or on behalf of, the Board, publish or disclose to any unauthorised person, otherwise than in the course of that person's duties, the contents of any document, communication or information whatsoever, which relates to, or which has come to that person's knowledge in the course of that person's duties under this Act.

Prohibition of publication of, or disclosure of information to unauthorised person

(2) A person who contravenes subparagraph (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

(3) A person who, having information which to the knowledge of that person has been published or disclosed in contravention of subparagraph (1), unlawfully publishes or communicates the information to any other person, commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

Immunity of member and staff

9. An action or other proceedings shall not lie or be instituted against a member of the Board, a committee of the Board or a member of staff of the Commission, for or in respect of any act or thing done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise or performance, or purported exercise or performance, of any of the powers, functions or duties conferred under this Act.
